

Introducing The Award-Winning Elysian Plant-Based Restaurant in Nicosia

May 09, 2022

May 09, 2022 -
Nicosia, Cyprus: Launched in 2019, Elysian has quickly become one of the top plant-based restaurants in Nicosia. With an innovative approach to healthy eating, the restaurant has created a delicious and varied menu, known for its incredible versatility of plant-based ingredients. The restaurant has won the Prestige Award for ?Plant-Based Restaurant of the Year - Cyprus 2022,? in addition to six awards at the Cyprus Takeout Awards 2021 while getting ready for new accolades.

Elysian's plant-based menu is inspired by the world?s most delicious and healthiest cuisine. The food served here is soulful and nutritious, crafted with great intention and care. Each dish is designed to delight the senses and evoke emotions. A taste of mouth-watering vegan swaps, gyros, burgers, smoothie bowls, salads, and no-sugar desserts can please even the most demanding food lovers. In addition to its array of innovative plant-based dishes, the menu also offers fine wines from local and international producers.

The Elysian experience is more than just great food; it's about connection, community, and conviviality.

Situated in the heart of Nicosia, Elysian is the perfect destination for discerning foodies and plant-based connoisseurs. Friends, families, and couples can enjoy a meal in the restaurant's relaxed and inviting atmosphere. The friendly staff is always on hand to help make customers? experience at this acclaimed eatery an unforgettable one.

Reservations can be made online while customers can also take advantage of the delivery and take-out services. To find out more about the Elysian dishes and see what other exciting events are coming up, follow them on Facebook. The Elysian team also organizes regular exclusive food events, like bottomless brunch, tapas nights, vegan social nights, or music nights.
