Aroma Zzar has announce the launch of their brand new essential oil diffuser. The product is available on their website at <http://www.aromazzar.com/products/aroma-zzar-essential-oil-diffuser>, through which full details are also available. Since then, the diffuser has already proven to be very popular.

"We wanted to create a diffuser that diffused the right quantity and quality of mist at all times. At the same time, we envisioned it to be sturdy enough and not get accidentally knocked over easily," says P.J. Beaulac from Aroma Zzar. "This is exactly what we have created in the Aroma Zzar AZ-700 and we are pleased to see people are already responding positively to it."

The product has a wood grained base with a heavy glass top, which ensures it is solid and will not be knocked over with ease. It also has a number of extra features, such as a built-in speaker. This allows the diffuser to be used for yoga and meditation, combining both scent and sound. Certain nature sounds have been included as standard, although customers can also plug their own music devices in.

For Aroma Zzar, the diffuser has to provide a holistic mind, body and spirit experience. "All diffusers deliver scents to entice our sense of smell," adds P.J. Beaulac. "Ours also delivers sound and it is exquisitely beautiful. To add to the visual experience, we have also added an LED light that produces several beautiful rotating colors. If people want to enjoy color therapy or just want to create a romantic setting, they can do so. The diffuser is also very popular as a nightlight in children's rooms."

The most vital part of the diffuser is its ability to diffuse essential oils. The company recommends that people invest in high quality oils to get the best possible experience. Additionally, they recommend that they seek advice on which oils address particular ailments. Further details are also made available on the company's Facebook page on <https://www.facebook.com/Aroma-Zzar-952847451424284/>, where people can also share information. "I love my diffuser," says one happy customer. "I use it with a mixture of lavender and eucalyptus oil, which helps me soothe my mind while also clearing my nasal passages. Perfect just before going to sleep."
