

Miami Luxury Realtor Josh Stein Shares His Thoughts On Attending The Formula 1 Miami Grand Prix

May 18, 2022

May 18, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Josh Stein, one of Miami's foremost luxury realtors, attended the 2022 Miami Grand Prix which took place at the Miami International Autodrome from May 6th to May 8th, 2022. The realtor had previously stated his intention of attending the event in a blog post on his website that can be read at the link: <https://www.joshsteinrealtor.com/events/formula-1-crypto-com-miami-grand-prix-2022/>.

The Miami Grand Prix was the 5th round of the F1 Schedule for 2022. It was sponsored by Crypto.com, the world's fastest-growing crypto app that boasts more than 50 million users and allows the buying and selling of over 250 cryptocurrencies. This was the first time that Miami hosted an F1 event. In preparation for the Miami Grand Prix, the Miami International Autodrome was built, a racetrack that loops around the Hard Rock Stadium. The circuit was designed by Formula One track designers Apex Circuit Design. To arrive at the final design, the circuit went through 75 iterations, with 36 of them being simulated, to meet the requirements of such a world-class motorsports event. The race ended with Max Verstappen in first place with 26 points, Charles Leclerc in second place with 18 points, followed by Carlos Sainz in third place with 15 points.

Josh had expressed the excitement he felt about the 2022 Miami Grand Prix, in the aforementioned blog post, by saying, "Miami is a beautiful and vibrant city with a lot to offer. I'm looking forward to attending the Formula 1 Miami Grand Prix and seeing all it offers. This event is a great opportunity to showcase Miami to the world, and I hope it will help boost tourism and real estate in the area."

Later, after the event was over, when asked about how he felt about attending the first-ever F1 event to hit Miami, Josh Stein said, "It was truly a sight to behold. It is fun to watch the races on your flat-screen TV at home but when you are out there in the sun, hearing the roar of the supercars as they zip past you - that is a completely different experience. When the race is not the focus, we were busy mingling with the who's who of tech, fashion, music, and movies as celebrities flocked to the event to indulge in the great food and the extravagant parties that were planned for when the sun finally set. Being there on the sun-soaked decks, rubbing shoulders with prominent names, and witnessing sports history being made in front of my eyes, I felt blessed to be alive at this time in history in a city such as Miami which offers unlimited opportunities to make the most out of your life. You too can make events like these a regular part of your life if you choose to move to Miami and make the Magic City your home. If you are looking for the best properties in the city that will let you live in the lap of luxury, you can get in touch with me or my team.
