

Tiny Rituals Launches Copper Jewelry Collection

May 17, 2022

Encinitas, California - May 17, 2022 -
Tiny Rituals, a company based in Encinitas, CA, is happy to announce their Copper Healing Collection, which are copper jewelry that offer the healing properties of copper, helping with the reduction of pain from various conditions, including migraines, rheumatism, arthritis, and muscle aches. Copper can also help with better blood circulation, increase energy levels, and boost the body?s self-healing ability. Having a broad array of vibrational frequencies, copper is believed to offer harmonic connections between the spiritual and physical realms. It is also capable of amplifying energy transfers, which means that the person wearing copper can absorb all of the healing energy when the metal is worn with healing minerals or crystals.

One of the copper jewelry available from Tiny Rituals is the Eternal Knot Copper Magnetic Bracelet, which serves as a great conductor of energy and provides healing for the mind and body. This bracelet combines the natural pain relief and healing benefits offered by magnets. It is believed that copper stimulates the nervous system to arouse the wearer from lethargy and it also awakens the base chakras and colors the person?s soul with optimism, independence, and balances the emotions. When pressed against the skin, it may offer natural pain relief, decrease inflammation, and it may help with various kinds of conditions, such as carpal tunnel syndrome, arthritis, sinus problems, headaches, and any issue related to soreness and swelling.

Tiny Rituals has also published a blog post that can help in understanding copper and the various benefits of wearing copper. The healing benefits of copper include better blood circulation and improved oxygen pumping, which results in a better burst of energy and a sharpened mind, which means that copper may help those who are suffering from anemia and a lack of red blood cells. It may also help with stiff joints, reducing aches and pains that are typically associated with rheumatism and arthritis. Copper also has metaphysical properties can help to clear out negative energies and rebalance the chakras, opening up the person to receive all that the universe can give. Copper is believed to offer emotional and mental healing. It allows the individual to lay down any mental burdens and increase self-esteem.

Also available as part of the Copper Healing Collection is the Fair Trade 3 Metal Twisted Bangle that offers a combination of copper, brass, and nickel in a twisted copper bracelet. A product of fair-trade jewelry crafted in Nepal and India, it represents the ancient art of jewelry while offering the healing powers of some of the world?s most iconic metals. Copper offers natural warmth and the ability to balance the mind, body, and soul. Copper bracelets are able to help in relieving the pain from rheumatism, arthritis, carpal tunnel syndrome, and stiff joints. It serves as a natural cleaner, decreasing the growth of bacteria and allowing better blood circulation. Brass, which is a union of copper and zinc, is believed to provide a significant boost to the immune system. Meanwhile, nickel is believed to excel in soothing and softening rough emotions and allow the wearer to return to a state of natural calm.

The people behind Tiny Rituals have personally witnessed the malnourished condition of children in India, especially those who are living in the poor communities. They founded the company with the additional goal of providing help to those children so that they may be able to avoid getting vitamin A deficiency disorder. They made the promise of donating 10 percent of their profits help provide the proper nutrition to the children. They wanted to offer protection for the malnourished children by offering inspired spiritual jewelry. They always ensure to that they offer high quality gemstones with grade AA or better stones in their products and have the desired purpose and clarity.

 "description": "\nAll the healing elements come together in this Tibetan Twisted Ring. The song of bright copper, the conductive beauty of brass, and the light love of Aluminum. Bringing into being the flow of healthy circulation, the harmony of energy, and Tibetan ritual for bringing strength to the body, mind, and soul ? this ring is radiant with life?s vitality.\n?With this ring, I move through the world with the balance of both spiritual and physical strength?\nDescription\nWeaving together the Tibetan trilogy of precious metals, the Tri-Metal Twisted Ring is all about harmonizing the physical body with its higher purpose. It serves as a reminder that everything is connected and that all the elements are forever in a dance with each other to bring balance to our being.\nCopper is known for being an incredible conductor of energy. It magnifies energy and washes away lethargy, all while keeping the wearer grounded and graced with the glow of high vibrations. In the physical body, Copper is known for keeping the pathways of healing open and easing aches and pains thanks to its uncanny ability to help your body attract exactly what it needs.\nBrass brings inner and outer strength to the party. Known for its high copper content and a tantalizing touch of zinc, this bronzed metal is all about keeping you soaked in clarity and keeping your mental functions sharper than a tack. It is a metal that knows how to help you problem-solve, gives you that golden shine to instantly banish bad feelings, and is an excellent tool for those looking to ramp up their efficiency in life.\nAluminum too is a silver flash tonic for the system. Known for helping soothe the nervous system, this metal invites you to speak your truth and stand in your power. The meeting of these three entwined in this Tibetan Ring brings a flash of elemental healing to your hand, reminding you that natures raw energy can help us live a life of spiritual richness and physical strength.\nDetails\n\nMade of Copper, Brass, and Aluminum \n\nAdjustable sizing\n\nMade in India with Love\nComes with a description card\n",
