May 13, 2022

Atlanta, Georgia - May 13, 2022 -
Alexander Shunnarah Trial Attorneys is a trusted name in the field of personal injury law. Attorney Alexander Shunnarah, Founder and CEO of Alexander Shunnarah Trial Attorneys, shares tips in a recent article to get the maximum compensation in a motorcycle accident case.

The article explains that it is important for an accident victim to be cautious of the dos and don?ts after a collision, adding that their actions can impact their odds of physical recovery and compensation. Attorney Shunnarah advises victims to seek medical treatment immediately after an accident to prevent the risk of hidden injuries, adding that a delayed diagnosis hinders physical recovery and gives the insurance company a reason to argue that the victim failed to mitigate their damages after the crash.

The best Atlanta motorcycle accident attorney suggests collecting evidence at the site of the accident, including pictures of property damage to their vehicle. It is important for victims to identify any witnesses to the accident and record their contact information. Attorney Shunnarah asserts that a witness?s account, along with a police report of the accident, can be crucial to the victim?s injury claim.

Hiring an accident attorney who handles motorcycle crash claims can play a vital role in proving the other driver?s fault in motorcycle accident claims. An experienced lawyer has the skills to prove the at-fault party's negligence in an accident. The party at-fault will be responsible for compensating the victim for damages, including economic and non-economic damages. Economic damages have quantifiable monetary amounts, such as property damage and medical expenses. Non-economic damages are non-monetary, such as pain and suffering.

?When someone is negligent and causes an injury to another person, that person is entitled to be compensation,? states Attorney Alexander Shunnarah. "The injured person often pays a hefty price for this negligence, especially after a motorcycle wreck. The at-fault party must reimburse the injured person for the harm they caused.?
