October 19, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

JSG Action Coach would like to reach out to businesses that may be looking for a coach to offer them the guidance, direction, and clarity they need to grow their business. Appointing an ActionCOACH Business Growth Specialist is one of the most effective, profit-making decisions a business owner can make. The coaching system is highly effective and interactive, and gives clients access to hundreds of proven systems and strategies that produce results for all kinds of businesses.

Business profitability has been impacted across many vertical markets in nearly every country. As that scenario is laid on top of the usual changes in marketing, advertising, sales, fulfillment and overall management strategies, JSG Action Coach has found that it is all the more important for business owners to connect with a coach who can guide them through the ongoing marketplace evolution. JSG Action Coach works with businesses that are ready to learn how to better leverage their time, improve their team members' efficiency and thereby earn more profit. As with all coaching programs, stretching beyond one's comfort zone and accountability to goal-related actions are core to JSG Action Coach's approach and integral to the successes shown in their website's home page testimonials.

?You are on this entrepreneurial journey, passionate about what you do, and you want to do it better,? says JSG Action Coach. ?You want to impact more lives ? whether that means providing jobs, spending more time with family or earning more income to spend on what matters most.? JSG Action Coach continues, ?You work hard, but understand that it?s important to take time off. You work for your clients, but you want your own schedule. You want to create the right culture for your team, but you don?t quite have it yet. You know systems are key to growth, but you?re not clear on how to get there. We?ll ensure the systems in your business allow you to focus on the tasks you love and allow you the freedom to fire yourself from the tasks you hate. JSG Action Coach helps you develop the processes to get top-quality leads, bigger and better clients, a more engaged team, increased revenue with more profit, and ultimately more time and freedom to have the life you dream of. Allowing fate to make decisions in your business will lead to your purpose and potential going unrealized. Let?s take fate out of the driver's seat and take action.?

JSG Action Coach was born out of a successful business story involving an elementary school teacher, Julie Seal-Gaustad, who started a business with zero funding or experience in 2009, grew it to seven figures and then sold it. She made multiple mistakes along the way which helped her learn how to do business more effectively. She hired a business coach and learned everything she needed to succeed - she grew into the business owner she needed to be to build a business that worked. She learned about the systems that run the business, profitability, leads, how to minimize chaos, how to effectively grow and engage a solid team, and how to manage time. She now takes the skills she used to build that business and helps others build profitable, thriving businesses.

?My first company reached a point where we created jobs and opportunities for so many wonderful team members,? Seal-Gaustad says. ?Getting out of my own way, learning what I needed to learn, and taking action allowed me to take two months off for maternity leave with my son, take multiple vacations per year, and work only 30 hours a week in the parts of my business I loved. I started the business with one client and as a solopreneur, and over time, we completed a business model overhaul where we developed three distinct departments and established leaders of each department to run the day-to-day. This allowed me to work four days a week and spend quality time with my growing son. I sold the majority assets of my company, and while this came years before I had planned, it came at the absolute perfect time. This allowed me to focus all of my efforts, expertise and passion on helping other business owners reach their dream destinations.?
