Hilton Head, SC - Hilton Head-based cosmetic firm Lashes n' More has revealed its secret to creating beautiful eyebrows for its clients.

For curious clients, it is their lash extensions services. Lash extensions lengthen the lashes and give them more volume. Clients can choose between classic and volume lash extensions services, depending on the style they want to show.

To separate the two, classic or traditional lash extensions provide a more natural-looking eyelash that is nonetheless alluring. This treatment lengthens, curls, and darkens the lashes. As a result, this procedure is ideal for clients who have a complete natural lash line but are lacking in volume, curl, or darkness. Classic lash extensions also provide an amazing mascara effect due to their natural appearance.

According to the lash specialist, each extension should be applied to a single natural lash at a time, never touching the skin. Additionally, the treatment typically takes two hours to complete. Therefore, it is essential to seek the assistance of a highly skilled lash specialist like Lashes n' More.

Meanwhile, the volume lashing method, often referred to as the Russian volume, is now the newest trend in the beauty world. The technician shapes two to six extremely thin eyelash extensions into a fan form before putting them to the original lash. This lash extension is ideal for folks who like a thick, black lash appearance. In addition, it is helpful for individuals who have sparse natural lashes or want to get a fuller-looking set than is possible with traditional or hybrid lashes.

While traditional eyelash extensions increase the length of the natural lashes, Russian volume looks lighter, fluffier, and fuller. Classic lashes are thicker, measuring 0.15 to 0.2mm in thickness, while Volume lashes are 0.07mm in diameter and weigh a fraction of the weight of traditional lashes.

The Luxury Volume Eyelash Extensions from Lashes n' More has helped several women and men achieve their eyelash extension goals, and they would be delighted to assist more clients. The Lashes n' More staff assures that the client's eyes will always look fantastic regardless of the eye makeup style or occasion.
