June 09, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Cincinnati, OH based Jake Sweeney Used Car Superstore is inviting the community to pay their showroom a visit if they are looking for their next vehicle. Offering certified, pre-owned cars of a variety of makes and models, the dealership's inventory represents a great deal for anyone who wants to find the right vehicle for their lifestyle without exceeding their budget.

The team at Jake Sweeney Used Car Superstore is eager to welcome you, says the used car dealership in Cincinnati, and we will do everything in our power to match you with your ideal vehicle. With so many families and individuals having to keep a closer eye on their finances over the past few years, we understand that our customers want to stick to a budget. However, that does not mean you have to compromise any more than you absolutely have to. We will help you find a vehicle that meets your needs and does not break the bank and you will receive nothing short of a premium customer experience during your entire time at Jake Sweeney Used Car Superstore.

Similarly, the dealership says they work with many customers who simply feel getting a used car is a practical decision regardless of the finances involved, and the team is happy to help out here as well. Whatever the customer's reasons for coming to Jake Sweeney Used Car Superstore, they are encouraged to share their goals and expectations with their salesperson so that the search for the right vehicle can start off on the right foot.

This philosophy is evident throughout the dealership's sales structure, from the way their representatives approach customer service to how the Jake Sweeney Used Car Superstore website is structured. For instance, those checking out used cars via the latter will find that it immediately offers them options to narrow their search based on certain crucial parameters, including make, year, body style, mileage and price range. According to the Cincinnati used car dealership, this is the secret behind their exceedingly high popularity with customers ? they make it a point to communicate with everyone who approaches them for assistance. The first order of business is always to find out what the customer needs and wants, and every member of the team conducts themselves foremost as the customer's advocate.

As Stella H. says in her review, ?Me and my husband Had worked with Brad, and he was very professional, very respectful, and he knew exactly what he was doing! He sold us a 2014 Chevrolet Corvette, and I absolutely love it. I drove it off the lot the same day! Also, he called the next day and asked how the ride back home was and checked to see if everything went ok, then proceeded to send me a text message on the service information. Highly recommend.?

Similarly, Jerry M. shares his experience getting a car on short notice. Since their previous vehicle was expected to fail, they were in dire need of a quick replacement. Fortunately, they chose to visit Jake Sweeney Used Car Superstore. ?I was in need of a better mode of transportation,? the review says, ?and needed one pretty much as soon as I could get one as my current vehicle was on its last leg. I went to Jake Sweeney in Tri-County and was able to purchase a very nice used car. I would like to send a huge shout out to Steven Withers, my sales consultant, Vince McKitric in finance and Ryan McMMain the used car sales manager for making my recent purchase a wonderful and hassle-free experience. You guys made my day.? The dealership is closing on a thousand reviews on their Google profile alone, and they always welcome feedback from new customers.
