June 09, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

CA based Cardinale Nissan is pleased to share a recent 5-Star review they received. The Seaside, CA Nissan dealership has a reputation for being one of the leading dealerships of the brand in California, providing both new and used Nissan vehicles for local residents as well as those in the surrounding communities.

The review highlighted by Cardinale Nissan is written by F. Diaz, who says, "Let me start off by giving a two thumbs up to Luis Martinez the General Sales Manager. He had exceptional service, and I will definitely recommend him to anyone looking to purchase a car. Secondly, I want to acknowledge Bryan, the sales representative that helped my kids and I find the perfect vehicle. He went above and beyond to make sure I was happy with my selection and answered all my questions. That kid did a marvelous job!?"

A representative for Cardinale Nissan says, "The Cardinale philosophy is to develop outstanding relationships where everyone wins. We truly believe that our most important job is providing customer service that exceeds every expectation. It is this philosophy that has helped us become one of the leading Nissan dealerships in California, and it is the reason why our customers love us. We aim to develop a positive relationship with every customer who visits or calls our dealership. We hope that this relationship will even outlast your car, which is saying a lot. We know our products, but we know our customers even better. We listen to, care about and understand each customer as an individual. Whether you are a car enthusiast or you are just looking for a reliable ride, we will help you find the vehicle for you.?

Cardinale Nissan offers a range of new and used Nissan vehicles. The dealership has all the latest Nissan models available for those who are looking for a brand new vehicle, including but not limited to the 2022 Nissan Altima, 2022 Nissan Leaf, 2022 Nissan Rogue, 2022 Nissan Frontier, 2022 Nissan Murano and more.

Those looking for certified pre-owned vehicles will discover that Cardinale Nissan has a varied inventory of used vehicles (including models from other manufacturers). While the vehicles range in make, model, color and more, the company assures that each has passed rigorous service inspections before making it onto the lot. The pre-owned options all have the Cardinale Nissan seal of approval. Learn more at: <https://g.page/CardinaleNissan?share>.

Aside from having a wide selection of vehicles, the company also has a specialized service department for all maintenance and repair needs a Nissan owner might have. The service staff at Cardinale Nissan is knowledgeable, precise, professional and honest. Whether a vehicle needs an oil change or has suffered a more serious issue, the company's service professionals have it all covered.

Cardinale Nissan's representative says, "We know how inconvenient things can be when you don't have your vehicle, so our team works hard and fast to make sure your repairs are done without sacrificing quality. Our finance department can help you find a payment plan that works with you and your financial situation if you need it. The entire staff at Cardinale Nissan is dedicated to getting you on the road and to your next destination.?"

The services provided by Cardinale Nissan have earned the company a highly positive rating over nearly 300 reviews. N. Panchal says in their review, "It was great working with everyone at Cardinale Nissan. Everyone makes you feel comfortable. No brain washing, no hidden costs, transparent when they give information, very welcoming. Especially Maria, who was excellent, talented and knowledgeable. Thank you, Cardinale Nissan, for giving us a good deal so that it was possible for us to buy a satisfying vehicle in these hard times.?"
