Porter, TX ? Building a new home is an exciting time and finding the right community is important. The Highlands in Porter is one of the newest communities in the area and offers residents a taste of luxury living. From the moment you drive in, you are greeted by matured trees, manicured landscaping and stunning homes. Aaron Lathan of United Real Estate ? Houston is now offering his real estate expertise and services to buyers interested in this community.

The Highlands features several builders including Drees, Highland Homes, Coventry Homes, Perry Homes and many more. With such a variety of builders, homebuyers are sure to find the perfect home to fit their needs and budget. In addition, The Highlands is conveniently located near shopping, dining and entertainment making it the perfect place to call home.

Aaron Lathan had this to say about the community, "The Highlands is a gorgeous place to call home. From the moment you approach the entry you can just feel how beautiful this place is going to be when it's all said and done. The time is now to get in before everyone finds out about this gem."

One of Aaron Lathan's most recent clients Tim Wills wrote, "Aaron was a rock star with the home buying process. As an out of state buyer he was really able to provide some foundational information on Houston neighborhoods and the pros/cons of it all." Another satisfied client, Karissa Harris wrote, "Aaron is the best. He's professional and very patient. Buying a home is a huge investment and you'll need someone who considers all factors and supports you from start to finish."

As a results-driven REALTOR®, Aaron Lathan utilizes his years of experience, and in-depth market knowledge, to help buyers navigate the home building process from start to finish. He works tirelessly on his clients behalf to ensure that they find their perfect home and get the best possible price.
