Jacksonville, FL - Rainbow Notary and Nuptials is pleased to announce that they officiate Gay Marriage in Jacksonville, Florida. As required by law, Florida notaries may perform wedding ceremonies.

Rainbow Notary and Nuptial conducts the ceremony and complimentary discussions with the couple to build the ideal service for their special day. The company's headquarters is located in Jacksonville, but it also serves the surrounding areas of Florida. They provide services to the people of St. Augustine, Daytona, Orlando, Kissimmee, Tampa, St. Petersburg, Sarasota, and Miami.

"We marry LGBTQ individuals, straight people, black people, white people, people of color, tall people, short people, people of all races and ethnicities, and people from all nations. We marry everyone who has a legal marriage license. Love is LOVE, and we LOVE tying the knot. We may marry you as a Notary, an Ordained Minister of the Universal Life Church, or a Justice of the Peace," says Selecia Young-Jones, one of the wedding officiants from Rainbow Notary and Nuptials. Other Jacksonville wedding officiants include Beth Briand, Glenn Guiler, and Kornika King.

If they have not yet chosen a venue, couples may opt to get married at the Rainbow Wedding Chapel. It is a great choice for couples working on a budget. They can choose between a beach setup or a garden chapel setup. The beach wedding option includes sand and a boardwalk, while the latter includes a background of a lovely flower wall, topiary boxwoods, and a stone wall. Both are indoors, so couples need not worry about rain on their wedding day.

Following the wedding, Rainbow Notary and Weddings said, "We ensure that the license is submitted with the appropriate Clerk of Courts." In addition, Rainbow Notary and Weddings provides a Premarital Course taught by Dr. Liliana Wolf. Florida mandates a premarital education course to avoid the three-day waiting period and save money.

In addition to marriage, Rainbow Notary and Nuptials provide virtual notarization, allowing them to give customers an infinite number of chances to "meet" with the notaries. Customers may sign documents using their mobile phone, tablet, or computer from anywhere in the world and then send them to the Rainbow Notary and Nuptials in Florida. After receiving the documents, they are quickly delivered to the Florida Secretary of State and returned to the consumers through FedEx.

Moreover, Rainbow Notary and Nuptials provides prompt and effective notary services with their 24/7 availability. The Florida company ensured they had the right employees. The vast majority are National Notary Association-affiliated notaries. They continue, "Everyone is licensed, insured, and bonded."
