ManageByStats Launches New Site

June 07, 2022

June 07, 2022 -
ManageByStats, maker of software productivity tools for Amazon sellers, has launched a new public site. The new site has been updated to reflect the wide range of tools and services offered by MBS, along with a new interface and improved navigation to make it easy for sellers to discover the things that will help them succeed. ManageByStats has been serving Amazon sellers for over seven years, providing solutions to make selling on Amazon easier for entrepreneurs.

?Our goal from the beginning has been to engineer ways to make selling on Amazon way easier and way more effective,? says MBS CEO, Philip Jepsen. ?Over the last seven years our main website has evolved right along with our tools and services, and this latest version makes it even easier to learn about what we have to offer, and to find the things that will help you.?

ManageByStats? multiple tools are designed to work together, in one place. From the beginning ManageByStats has been developed around the concept of placing multiple high quality resources together for managing an Amazon business in one platform. The new site showcases this powerful collection of integrated software tools, demonstrating how MBS makes managing and scaling an Amazon business incredibly easy and as automated as possible, for maximum profits, enabling entrepreneurs to live the lifestyle they want.

?My team and I have created what we believe to be the absolute best set of software tools out there for managing your Amazon business,? says Mister Jepsen. ?We?re here for your success.?
