June 08, 2022 -
Bluffton, SC - As Father's Day approaches, LowCountry Home Magazine, a premier home builders' publication, is helping South Carolina residents find the perfect and hard-to-find gift that can surely make every father feel special.

Instead of going on a last-minute shopping spree in a mall and getting frustrated for not finding the perfect gift, LowCountry Home Magazine wants to help by listing the top 10 items every father will appreciate and actually use.

First on the list is the Digital Tape Measure which guarantees accurate measurements. It is a must-have for every handyman. Another perfect gift for a father who likes to build things is a Magnetic Wristband where he can have all of his screws, nails, bolts, washers, and drill bits within arm's reach.

Thirdly, LowCountry Home Magazine recommends the Quick-Dry Golf Polo Shirt made with moisture-wicking fabric and UPF sun protection to keep an active father from sweating or burning on the golf course. For those who love a classic barbecue party at home, the perfect gift would be the stainless steel BBQ grill tool set.

The Bluffton, SC Home Magazine also recommends the Hopsulator Stainless Steel Can Cooler. This cooler will help fathers enjoy an ice-cold drink no matter how hot the weather gets. Another option is the freezable Cooling Pint Beer Glasses for anyone who wants to have a cold drink at hand. For the father who likes organizing, the magazine recommends the Phone Docking Station that can serve as a one-stop place to put all his belongings.

For those on the go, a Toiletry Bag Hanging Travel Organizer is a must-have. This gift will help make their packing faster and more efficient. For fathers who love to cook, a Breakfast Sandwich Maker is a perfect gift. Lastly, a Safe Brass BBQ Grill Cleaner is for those who don't prefer any gifts. This small but super handy gift is beneficial for the home.

These products are all sold on Amazon. Those who have an Amazon Prime account are guaranteed to receive their gifts in no time. The good news from LowCountry Magazine is that clients can now order these items through their website, https://www.lowcountryhome.com/. In addition, LowCountry Home Magazine is now a participant in the Amazon Services LLC Associates Program, so their readers can also get access to these fantastic gift items.

Lowcountry Home Magazine continuously offers products that help improve the community's quality of life by serving as its primary source of information. They provide a monthly magazine in both print and digital formats. Residents of South Carolina may also get frequent updates from the media firm through their monthly membership plan. The publication has served the SC community for 25 years and continues to live up to its slogan, "Better Southern Building."
