Paleo On The Go, a real food based meal delivery service in Largo, FL, has announced that they have launched their traditional style Thanksgiving feast that is based on the paleo diet and can be delivered to any address in the United States. The Paleo Thanksgiving meal is designed for those who follow the paleo diet, which is gluten free, dairy free, soy free, and included only real food ingredients. Paleo On The Go also offers many autoimmune lifestyle friendly foods.

"More and more people are following the paleo diet because of its health benefits, or because they suffer from an autoimmune disorder that makes it imperative for them to consume real food, not the Standard American Diet which is indeed SAD" says Dave Rohde from Paleo On The Go. "For these people, the holiday season is often a very difficult time of year, as the majority of the foods offered socially do not fit in with their dietary choices. Because of this, we have created a satisfying feast that will leave people full and happy without getting off track or feeling ill affects of eating something they shouldn't."

They currently offer two Thanksgiving meals: paleo and autoimmune protocol paleo for people to choose from. Both generously serve four people and come complete with a dessert. The meals are shipped frozen and there is no charge for delivery. Everything has been fully cooked and simply needs to be reheated. This means not having to spend the entire day in the kitchen (sometimes even the night before). Both are reasonably priced and have already seen positive reviews from those who couldn't resist a little pre-Thanksgiving taste test of their Paleo Meals Delivered option. "I love everything about this. So quick and easy" says one customer.

People who do follow the paleo diet, either by choice or by necessity, are encouraged to visit the company's website to take a look at the various meal delivery plans and menu options they have to offer.
