

Slip and Fall Attorney in Ontario Gets Another Five Star Review

June 30, 2022

Ontario, California - June 30, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer, a law firm based in Ontario, CA, is proud to announce that they have received another five star review on Google from a satisfied client. The client, Bella B., had suffered a workplace injury and Alexander D. Napolin showed that when in need of a work injury lawyer near me Ontario residents can depend on their firm. Attorney Napolin responded to the positive feedback and stated that overall, it was a very successful case despite the deficiencies in the California workers' compensation system because they were able to maximize the workers' compensation work injury accident claim. They were able to claim the full 104 weeks of temporary disability, plus 52 weeks of state disability, plus the medical treatment and the settlement in the end.

In her five star review for the firm on Google, Bella B. said, "Mr. Napolin is the best! His staff is so attentive and so is he. Couldn't have asked for a better attorney. Definitely recommend!"

Meanwhile, Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer has provided an information resource on their website that explains the main benefits of the California workers' compensation law in 2022. These are: medical benefits for treatment of the injury; temporary disability payment to make up for lost wages from missing work; permanent disability payment for any permanent loss of function; rehabilitation and retraining voucher for job displacement as a result of permanent disability; and death benefit to the dependents of a worker whose death was due to work.

Alexander D. Napolin says, "If your workers' compensation claim is denied, then you are provided with no benefits and need to hire a lawyer. If it is accepted, then you may want to maximize these benefits by hiring a California workers' compensation lawyer. In California, injured workers can hire a lawyer and file an Application for Adjudication of Claim to fight for these benefits at the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board (WCAB)."

In the event that the accident resulted in the death of the victim, a wrongful death lawsuit may be filed when the death was due to the negligence of someone else. The law firm can also provide the wrongful death lawyer Ontario residents may need. Oftentimes, money may also be available through a claim on the negligent individual's homeowner or car insurance policy. Money from insurance may step even if the tortfeasor is unable to pay a lawsuit. These claims may include all kinds of deadly accidents, such as: car accidents, bus collisions, and truck crashes.

Car accidents are the most frequent and statistically speaking, most people will find themselves involved in at least one car accident at some point in their lives. This is a troublesome experience and accident victims tend to be emotional, which is a fact that insurance adjusters may try to take advantage and offer a settlement that may be much lower than what is deserved. That is why the personal injury attorneys at the firm are ready to protect the rights, including the health and well-being of car accident victims in a wide range legally with monetary and medical compensation benefits.

Launched in 2011 by Alexander D. Napolin, Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer has developed the reputation of being a well-balanced California law firm that specializes in personal injury cases. The firm became renowned for their successes in the cases they had handled. These achievements were due to Alexander D. Napolin's unique approach that he applies for each case. After over 10 years of offering legal assistance to accident victims, the firm has established a long track record of success for thousands of accident injury cases. All of these added to Alexander D. Napolin's reputation as one of the leading accident injury lawyers in Ontario and California.
