Dalton, GA - No more than two hours north of Atlanta, Illinois-based insurance brokers Insurance Navy has opened a new insurance office this summer. This is their first insurance office located in the state of Georgia. Insurance Navy also has insurance locations in Texas, California, and Indiana, with the vast majority in the Chicagoland area. The expansion also comes at a time when Insurance Navy's customer base saw an increase. With more drivers getting back on the road every day, the demand for low-cost and quality auto insurance has never been higher. The new insurance office is located in Dalton, about an hour and a half north of Atlanta.

"We've been focusing on expanding our insurance business to the state of Georgia since we completed a new location in Indiana," says Insurance Navy CEO Fadi Sneh, "Georgia is another state with especially competitive car insurance rates slightly above the national average. We look forward to providing low-cost car insurance to drivers of Dalton and other cities in Georgia. They'll find that having a car insurance provider like us as a powerhouse in Georgia car insurance."

Insurance Navy officially opened the new insurance office last week at 1100 E Walnut Ave, Suite 6 in Dalton. There are plans to sell all the insurance coverages they offer everywhere else including auto insurance, commercial insurance, SR-22 insurance, renters insurance, and homeowners? insurance. They also have plans to hire insurance agents with insurance expertise with a passion for customer service in the area which will create local jobs. Every new customer that walks through the doors will be greeted with a free insurance quote and customizable policy limits to best fit their budget.
