

Proactive Healthcare Recruiters Looks For Outpatient Physical Therapist in Mystic, CT

September 06, 2022

Virginia Beach, Virginia - September 06, 2022 -

Proactive Healthcare Recruiters, a healthcare professional recruiting firm, is looking for an outpatient physical therapist for a clinic in Mystic, CT. This position, at Independence Physical Therapy, is designed for a positive, compassionate and dynamic staff physical therapist, who will use evidenced based evaluation and treatment skills to address the needs of patients in the community. Independence Physical Therapy wants physical therapists on their staff who have great communication skills and a collaborative spirit, and are looking for someone who can effectively integrate into their existing team of physical therapists. In return, the company offers a competitive salary and bonus program, medical benefits, a mentorship program, and room for professional growth as just some of the many benefits of this outpatient physical therapist position. IPT has two clinics along the Connecticut shoreline, with access to gorgeous beaches, great shopping, delicious restaurants, two famous casinos, and a number of lovely New England villages. Candidates for the position can also rest assured that they are applying for work at a reputable physical therapy clinic, as IPT has won the Readers Choice award for Best Physical Therapy clinic in the local area for two years in a row.
