February 25, 2015 -
Damien Zamora of Go Mobile Solutions has endorsed Press Advantage as the best new tool to generate website traffic for your business.

On February 25, 2015, Zamora shared this revolutionary tool with his customers via a special webinar with Michael Taggart, CEO of Adventure Marketing. People on that webinar were looking for a solution to generate publicity for their businesses as well as increase their visibility using Search Engine Optimization. Some of their common concerns were:

?I don?t know the first thing about how to get my business noticed.?

?SEO is too complicated for me to understand.?

?Can?t I just pay someone to do it for me??

Taggart then went on to show how easy it is to do all these things using Press Advantage. Press Advantage is a done for you press release distribution site. But beyond just distributing the press release they also syndicate it for you and build in custom backlinks using their proprietary software.

Once guests were able to see Press Advantage in action they were stunned. The simplicity of the site and the results gained were something they had never seen with any other press release site. Once they saw the price that was it. At a fraction of the price, but with all the features people expect it is hands down the best value in the press release distribution market. The attendees went crazy.

On the webinar Michael stated,

?Press Releases can be used for small businesses as well as huge companies to generate publicity for their company. Whether you are new to this or an expert, Press Advantage provides a completely automated, no hassle way to generate buzz about your business. It is hands down the easiest way to get news about your company out on the internet.?

Zamora was so impressed he insisted on Michael having a celebratory shot while on the webinar and invited all attendees to do the same. Taggart willingly accepted, much to the enjoyment of the crowd who proceeded to chant ?shot, shot, shot.? Zamora also stated he will continue to tell people about Press Advantage as it is the best Press Distribution Company he has come across so far.
