Louisville, KY ? Today, 10BibleVerses.com announced a daily Bible verse podcast.

Now Bible readers can get short 60-second inspirational scripture readings along with a brief devotional thought in audio format. The Bible Verse of the Day podcast is available on all major podcast apps including iTunes, Spotify, and Audible.

Podcasts are a convenient way to keep up with news on the go. The Daily Bible Verse audio program allows Christians to hear the Good News while they commute, exercise, or even read along in the Bible. It's a spiritual boost for Christians who struggle to keep up with their daily devotionals and spend time alone with God.

According to LifeWay Research, ?Americans have a positive view of the Bible. And many say the Christian scriptures are filled with moral lessons for today. However, more than half of Americans have read little or none of the Bible. Less than a quarter of those who have ever read a Bible have a systematic plan for reading the Christian scriptures each day. And a third of Americans never pick it up on their own.?

This new 60-second daily scripture reading will address that deficit. The scripture readings are devotional in nature. Each episode is narrated by pastors or church leaders. The scripture reading will use various translations of the Bible. Most common will be the English Standard Version (ESV), King James Version (KJV), and New International Version (NIV).

The Old and New Testaments are deeply rooted in an oral storytelling tradition. Printed books are a recent invention. Most Christians in history would only access the sacred writings through listening while in church. The verse of the day podcast aims to restore the ancient power of the spoken word in a format that modern believers can access.

The Bible says a lot about hearing the Word of God. As Paul the Apostle wrote in Romans 10:17, ?So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.? As Jesus Christ said in John 8:47, ?Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God.? This daily scripture reading will strengthen faith and provide spiritual inspiration.

"This is an exciting new way to help people connect with God?s Word each and every day," said Tony Kummer, founder of 10 Bible Verses. "Everyone is struggling for time, but daily scripture reading has never been more accessible. Our team is doing a tremendous job finding the most inspiring scripture quotes and making them available in a variety of formats.?"

This podcast is the latest offering from 10BibleVerses.com in addition to their daily Bible verse images and YouTube scripture for today videos.
