One of the top reviews of the product from a verified purchaser says, ?I am shocked at how beautiful this jar is. It is so much better than the one I just broke. It fits longer spaghetti, the glass is lead-free, and the silicone seal is LFGB. AND there is a lifetime warranty. I am so happy with this. And as always, with everything I've ever bought from Cestari, the packaging is good enough that this becomes a wonderful bridal shower or wedding gift. I'm so happy I got this.?

Another verified purchaser left a review saying, ?I needed a pasta holder that looked nice enough to leave on my kitchen counter, and boy, does this deliver! Its slim shape displays pasta perfectly, and the bamboo lid fits with any decor. I?ve bought Cestari products before and I?ve never been disappointed, this pasta jar is another keeper. It cleans up easily in the dishwasher and is very durable. I may buy a second!?

One of the spaghetti jar reviews from an Amazon Vine customer says, ?This jar is awesome! Looks so much better than cardboard pasta boxes sitting on the shelf. Fit 2 boxes of spaghetti, and it was easy to get the noodles inside. The lid has a good seal and stays on well. The jar and lid seem high quality and sturdy, not like some of the cheaper options out there. Overall I?m pleased and would definitely recommend it to others!:)?
