Florida-based and family-owned Hook Company provides waste management Citrus County and surrounding areas depend on for short or long-term use. Residents and businesses are encouraged to contact the company directly to learn more about scheduling services and pricing. The company specializes in offering a straightforward, transparent service and customer satisfaction has always been its team?s highest priority.

According to the company website, Hook Company began in 1991 and is driven by the desire to provide dependable and friendly customer service to Citrus and Sumter counties. The company has set itself apart from other Citrus County waste management providers by offering all-inclusive services for residents' and businesses' waste disposal needs. Owner Justin Bentley has decades of experience providing top-quality waste removal services and has built a team of dedicated and reliable professionals who exceed customer expectations by prioritizing on-time pickup, clear-cut communication, and cost-effective pricing.

Many will already be familiar with the company?s simple and efficient trash pickup service, which already included weekly trash pickups, junk cleanout and hauling, renovation waste disposal, and more. Now, to make cleanouts and similar projects even easier for their community, Hook Company recommends using the company?s residential trash service. This option offers numerous advantages, not the least of which being that it is highly affordable and convenient for homeowners and individuals. Hook Company also provides contractors and construction professionals with avenues for waste disposal with quick response times and exceptional service.

The company offers services in Citrus County, including Floral City, Inverness Highlands North, Inverness Highlands South, Inverness, and Hernando, as well as Sumter County, including Bushnell, Center Hill, Lake Panasoffkee, Webster, and Sumterville. Interested parties who are seeking service outside of the listed areas are encouraged to contact the company directly to see if arrangements can be made.

Many have already expressed deep appreciation of the company?s efforts. Dave P. says in their Google review, ?Hi, I just wanted to say thank you for the great service these past 5 years. Once I missed my time to put my trash out and I saw the truck go by while walking to the end of my driveway, and on the way back your truck stopped and picked my trash up. I was very impressed with their thoughtfulness. If I ever move back to Sumter County, I will use Hook Company again.?

As these reviews indicate, many customers have decided to choose Hook Company for all their junk and garbage removal needs for several years, basing this choice on the consistently high standard of service they provide and the friendly nature of all their staff, from administrators to drivers and so on. As such, Hook Company tends to receive nothing less than their customers? highest recommendation, and this can be seen in the company?s 5-Star review score on their Google profile alone. The provider is active in multiple areas across the state of Florida, and their commitment to great service and attention to detail at every level ensure that customers always have a superior experience.

?I've been with this company for a long time,? notes one review from Thomas W. "I have never had any problems with them, and my trash has always been picked up when it is supposed to be. This is a great company that I would highly recommend to anyone. Thank you, Hook Company, for doing a great job for residents of Sumter County.?

Hook Company?s team invites its community to get in touch by phone or email to learn more about the garbage pick up Citrus County FL residents depend on. Orders can be placed either way (though the phone generally enables customers to discuss their needs much faster), and the company is also active on social media.
