Hilton Head, SC - Residents of South Carolina, especially in Hilton Head, get to enjoy the newest beauty trend everyone raves about ? eyelash extension.

Lashes n' More, the Best Eyelash Salon Hilton Head, is dedicated to providing the most comprehensive eyelash extension procedures in the area. The eyelash extension specialist gives two solutions to its clientele ? the Classic and Volume eyelash extensions. Depending on the client's desire, these eyelash extension treatments bring numerous benefits to clients.

Those who like a natural appearance choose classic or traditional eyelash extensions. Customers with a complete, natural lash line lacking in size, curl, or blackness benefit most from their procedure. Classic eyelash extensions give the lashes length and curl.

On the other hand, Volume Lash Extension or Russian volume is for individuals with thin or sparse eyelashes. This procedure gives the appearance of lighter, fluffier, and fuller eyelashes. No mascara can equal the depth and fullness of the lash extensions that volume lashes provide.

"Our revolutionary application techniques provide lash styles of the greatest quality that are comfortable, soft, and personalized for every occasion. From daily casual wear to weddings and bridal lashes, the most fantastic lashes Hilton Head has to offer will assist anybody in expressing themselves in comfort and style," says Irina Rudman, owner of Lashes n' More.

Rudman, a popular name in the industry, is skilled in traditional and volume lash extensions. She acquired her lash skills in Russia and decided to bring them to Hilton Head. She also traveled to South Korea to further her abilities and study more lash extension techniques. Rudman explains that Lashes n' More offers the best practices she gained from Russia and South Korea. It is a blend of the two procedures in a unique way.

The Eyelash Extension Specialist likewise assures clients that they only use high-quality materials and adhere to proper lashing procedures. "We treat each client as an individual and consider their eye shape, lifestyle, and personal preferences. We develop lash styles that are unique for each person," she added.

Rudman says it is her goal for Lashes n' More to become the "go-to" beauty salon for the whole of Hilton Head and Bluffton. The Bluffton beauty shop also provides Brow Lamination, Lash and Brow Tint, Lash Extension Removal, and Lash Lift, in addition to lash extensions.
