

Atlanta Personal Injury Lawyer Helps Clients Get Compensation

July 15, 2022

Atlanta, Georgia - July 15, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Kenneth S. Nugent P.C, a personal injury lawyer based in Atlanta, GA, would like to reach out to anyone in the area who may be in search of legal representation to help them get the compensation they need and deserve. Ken Nugent is known for helping Atlanta residents in their never ending fight against insurance companies that refuse to pay out. The Atlanta personal injury lawyer has helped many people with their personal injury cases over the years, and he is considered by many to be a life saver.

“When you are injured, your life is disrupted,” remarks Kenneth S. Nugent. “This disruption may be temporary, but in many cases it is permanent. As the injured party, you are entitled to medical care and compensation for your injuries. The responsible party, and their insurer, have specific obligations to you regarding this injury, obligations that are required by law. If you have been injured you should seek the counsel of Ken Nugent. The Law Offices of Ken Nugent can quickly review your case and determine what compensation and care you are entitled to regarding your injury. Insurance companies know what obligations they have to the injured party. However, they often rely on the fact that the public is unaware of these obligations, which allows them to deny claims. Hiring a professional law firm is the easiest way that you can avoid falling victim to these practices by the insurance companies. An accident attorney, like those found at the Law Offices of Ken Nugent, will protect your rights and demand that the insurer complies with the law.?

Being injured is a very difficult situation to be in, and many people feel as though the stress will never end. An injury will often mean lost income, unpaid bills and questions about the fate of the victim's family, especially if they are the breadwinner. This additional stress is not conducive to healing and lengthens the healing process in many cases. Injured people are generally better off sitting at home recuperating instead of fighting with insurance companies, which is why it is always best for them to hire a qualified, skilled and experienced attorney to handle their case.

Personal injury could refer to any of a large number of situations in different degrees of severity. Any injury, regardless of severity, can be very disruptive, which is why the first action on the mind of someone who has been injured or had a loved one injured should be to seek medical attention ? and then seek legal counsel from a trusted law firm. The Legal Offices of Ken Nugent is one such firm, and they respond to their clients' concerns within 48 hours, advising them about their legal rights as the injured party in a personal injury case.

Hiring the right personal injury lawyer can have a profound effect on the outcome of a claim. Often the other party will use the time that the injured party takes to recover to build a compelling case that could either reduce the amount they end up paying or make it so they do not have to pay at all. This is why Ken Nugent recommends hiring the right lawyer (and hiring them fast in order) to ensure the best possible odds of success.

The firm says, "Our lawyers can handle any case that you can put up, but there are some in which we specialize. These are actually the ones that we have the most experience in. We fight auto accident cases for motorcycles, cars and even trucks! Car accidents are the easiest to investigate and find the vehicle at fault. Motorcycle and truck accidents on the other hand are a challenge to fight and satisfy the claim. This is because truck insurances are difficult to fight against and there are a lot of stakeholders associated with them, making the claim harder to justify. Motorcycle accidents pose a lot of problems too. This is because witnesses can explain the accident in a variety of ways and there can be equal witnesses on the claimant and the opposing side. These types of challenges are readily undertaken by our injury attorneys who justify them with dedication.?"
