July 25, 2022 -

Cambridge Electronics Incorporated, an Authorized TELUS Mobility Dealer in Fort Saskatchewan, has announced that it is hiring for the Wireless Retail Sales Associate part-time position at its retail store at #105, 8701-94 Street Cornerstone Mall, Fort Saskatchewan, AB, Canada T8L4P7. Candidates interested in applying for the position can email their resumes to Cambridge.Electronics@telus.net.

The job description says that the Fort Saskatchewan TELUS Mobility Dealer is looking for ?talented sales professionals who are self-motivated, dynamic, goal-oriented, team players, who have worked in the wireless industry, for full-time and part-time positions.? The company says that it will offer competitive wages based on the candidate?s experience.

In a list of essential abilities and motivators highlighted in the job description, the company says that candidates should possess problem-solving and multitasking abilities, should find joy in helping others, display sound intelligence and good decision-making skills, be optimistic, and be coachable to follow store processes and procedures.

The company also notes that it requires candidates to have excellent communication skills as they will be tasked with approaching every customer to understand their needs by asking good questions and listening. They should also be team players who can work in a group environment, be open-minded to learning new things, and always treat customers and co-workers with professionalism.

The ideal candidate will also have to bear the responsibility of continually increasing store sales as once they understand the customer's needs, they must clearly explain and demonstrate TELUS?s products, services, and features. Cambridge Electronics Incorporated also demands a certain level of professionalism from candidates as they must be confident of what they are selling by utilizing all the tools that management provides to continually improve their knowledge of the products TELUS offers and its phones? features.

The company also says that it is looking for candidates with integrity as they must be dependable, should show up on time every day, and be trustworthy. The retail store's employees are also required to help maintain a clean, organized, and enjoyable work environment. Finally, due to the nature of the retail industry, candidates should have the ability to work independently and work retail hours including weekends and holidays.

Cambridge Electronics Incorporated has been in business in Fort Saskatchewan for over 25 years. The TELUS Mobility Dealer has a proven track record for success which is evident in the impressive rating of 4.5 out of 5.0 from over 100 customer reviews on its Google My Business page. The retail store specializes in sales and service for all TELUS mobile cellular phones, smartphones, Apple iPhones, mobile internet keys, tablets, and a wide variety of cellular accessories. The store also provides exceptional service for TELUS Optik TV and TELUS Satellite TV orders. Customers who want to save money on a new smartphone can exchange their old phone at the store as a part of the TELUS Trade-In Program.

Cambridge Electronics Incorporated has a message for potential job applicants about what makes the Fort Saskatchewan TELUS store special. A spokesperson says, "Our customers love us, of course, for the expert services that we provide. However, they also deeply appreciate the honesty and integrity with which we operate. We only recommend the products and services that will work the best for their needs and budget. When they sign up for a service plan, they have peace of mind knowing that they will pay exactly what we promised them in the store. We are always upfront about TELUS's offerings to ensure that they don't get any nasty surprises at the end of the month. Our conduct is always helpful, courteous, and respectful. Our store's employees meet our customers' needs by being keenly attentive and using their years of experience to recommend products. So, when you join us for the position that we are hiring for, you will work alongside these high performers and learn skills which will last you a lifetime."
