July 25, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Cincinnati, OH based Jake Sweeney Chevrolet is pleased to present their community with a new round of attractive offers on pre-owned vehicles. Widely regarded to be the best New Chevrolet dealer in Cincinnati, Jake Sweeney Chevrolet has long made it their mission to find the best deals for their customers as they hunt for their dream vehicle.

The dealership runs great offers on a regular basis, and July customers may have come across a varied selection that included the 2018 Jeep Wrangler Unlimited Sahara, 2021 GMC Canyon AT4 (With Leather), 2020 Chevrolet Silverado 3500HD LT, 2020 Chevrolet Equinox Premier and more. The same specials may or may not be available in August and September, but anyone looking for a pre-owned vehicle has nothing to lose by checking the dealership's website for updates. Jake Sweeney Chevrolet has used cars, trucks, SUVs and more in their inventory, and the team looks forward to helping customers find the right car for their lifestyle, family and so on.

Customers who want to browse a wide selection of used vehicles in Cincinnati, OH need look no further than Jake Sweeney Chevrolet. Whether they want to buy their first car, wish to trade in their existing car for another, want the best mileage possible or have any of a number of other requirements, the dealership can help. In addition to used Chevrolet vehicles, the dealership's inventory features a number of other manufacturers, including Ford, Honda, GMC, Subaru, Toyota and more.

Jake Sweeney Chevrolet is notable for the fact that they have amassed thousands of reviews online from customers who largely appear to have enjoyed their experience with the dealership. Boasting a high rating on their Google profile alone, the dealership is frequently complimented for their attention to detail, friendly staff and commitment to providing a personalized service to every customer. This commitment has led customers to witness the dealership's sales team and other staff go the extra mile in numerous situations, from cases where the customer required extra financing to get the vehicle they wanted to simply receiving more help hunting for a car that met all their needs.

Jake Sweeney Chevrolet adds that they understand many of their customers come in with strict budgets in mind, so the team is careful to present them with a range of appropriate options. On the other hand, a customer may indicate that they are willing to go a little higher under the right circumstances. Here, the dealership rises to the occasion by introducing them to options that are worth the additional investment. The team makes it their goal to build lifelong relationships with all of their customers, and they accomplish this by giving them exactly what they want and need.

Michelle J. reports in their review, "Everyone we encountered was friendly and acknowledged our presence, making sure we had been taken care of/helped. Customer service is something that is lacking in the world today, and so it was a breath of fresh air to see that is not the case at Jake Sweeney Chevrolet. Dante Hendley was wonderful! He didn't push or pressure us and did his best to get us the best deal. He was respectful and friendly. It's the best experience I have ever had buying a car! Thanks, Dante and Jake Sweeney Chevrolet."

An excerpt from a review left by Ashley B. also says, "I picked up my Trailblazer a week ago, and I'm grateful for him reaching out. From start to finish, I've been very satisfied with their customer service and their priority of making sure I was happy and that I drove away with the car I wanted. I would definitely recommend them to anyone in the market for a vehicle! Thank-you again, Pierre!"

Jake Sweeney Chevrolet invites their community to email or call their office to learn more about the dealership's pre-owned vehicle offers in Cincinnati. Strong customer service is a cornerstone of the dealership's services, and they welcome all inquiries. Customers may also visit the dealership in person (directions can be found on the dealership's website and online profiles) to speak with one of their representatives.
