In the recent review, Robert D. gave them five stars and said, "We have utilized different tree-related services of Cicoria for many years, including a recent need for a downed tree removal. We have been very pleased and highly recommend this company. All of their staff are very professional, approachable, and helpful, starting with Mark Cicoria, the proprietor, to the skilled technicians who provide the hands-on work, to the office staff with whom we coordinate for scheduling, etc. The work is always done on-time, and our property is left very neat with everything cleared away. We have never had a need to "shop around" or compare pricing; we are that happy with Cicoria Tree Service. Besides, I would not want to waste time comparing prices if a fallen/leaning tree could pose a genuine hazard to our home and safety, and we have a known and trusted resource available to us.?

The team from Cicoria Tree and Crane Service wants to emphasize they have the staff, equipment, and experience to remove any tree anywhere. After removing the tree, they will dispose of it in an efficient and careful way, minimizing the amount of waste and invasiveness into the client's landscape. And once the tree has been cut down and removed efficiently, they can grind the stump such that the area will be clean and attractive and ready for replacement growth. The equipment they use for tree removal and stump grinding include: cranes, log trucks, chippers, climbers, stump grinders, chip trucks, rigging, and aerial lifts.

The tree care services that they provide include: tree removal and stump grinding; emergency tree service; tree pruning; and cabling and bracing. They also offer plant health care services, such as: insect and disease management; construction damage mitigation; fertilization and soil management; and arborist consultation.

They offer pruning services utilizing advanced equipment and the experience and knowledge of their certified arborists. There are five key reasons for pruning: suppression of insects and disease; decreasing the chances of failure in the structure; improvement of views, better sunlight and air circulation, retention of screening, and keeping plants in scale with the landscape; improvement in the flower, fruit, and beauty of the tree; and to protect people and property. Their pruning service is assured to be in compliance with the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) A-300 Standards, the International Society of Arboriculture (ISA), and the Massachusetts Arborist Association (MAA).

Established in 1981, Cicoria Tree and Crane Service is a comprehensive tree care company that is family owned and operated. Each member of their team really cares about trees and are focused on satisfying their customers. They have already rendered their services to thousands of Essex County residents during three and a half decades that have been in existence. They are the only independent tree care company in the area that has been earned a Tree Care Industry Association (TCIA) Accreditation.
