Radionics Box introduces Super Manifestation X 2022, a radionics software program designed to make radionics operations simple and powerful when combined with a genuine HSCTI orgone generator designed by Karl Welz. Super Manifestation X 2022 runs on all modern versions of Microsoft Windows and is fully compatible Microsoft Windows 10 and 11. Systems with "S" mode enabled will need to disable "S" mode before installing Super Manifestation X 2022 as they would with any other software outside the Microsoft store. This radionics software program features up to 28 movable and configurable radionic positions complete with image, text and radionic rate settings. The software also includes several methods of dialing radionic rates including "virtual stickpad", "Rate Genie" and "Fast Rate Set".

"Super Manifestation X 2022 is the pinnacle of radionics software technology that is unmatched anywhere due to its deep and flexible feature set as well as its unique virtual radionic operation modeling system. It is the ultimate radionics software workstation for beginners, advanced operators and professional users" Super Manifestation X 2022 is now available at the Radionics Box website and is designed to be used with genuine
