Atlanta, Georgia - August 01, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Atlanta, Georgia based personal injury law firm Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. is sharing insight on auto accident law with their community. With over 350 years of collective experience and offices in Albany, Atlanta, Augusta, Columbus, Duluth, Macon, Savannah and Valdosta, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. is dedicated to providing high quality legal services for victims of personal injury cases.

Being aware of Georgia's accident laws is very important since it can help motorists stay safe as they travel, and it can also come in handy if someone finds themselves involved in an accident. According to Kenneth S. Nugent P.C., Georgia requires motorists to carry a minimum amount of car insurance, much like most other states. However, more often than not, insurance companies do not cover all expenses like people might expect them to.

Vehicular accidents come with a variety of unexpected expenses. There is the cost of repairing or replacing the vehicle, cost for rental cars, lost wages and medical care in the event of injury. However, these are just short-term costs. There are also long-term costs to be considered. Victims of car accidents are entitled to damages for pain and suffering as well as the loss of quality of life. In worst case scenarios, loved ones of a victim who died in an accident can file a wrongful death claim.

Kenneth S. Nugent P.C. points out that there is no cap on compensatory damage for damages or injuries caused by another person's negligence or unlawful conduct in Georgia. A qualified auto accident attorney in the state can therefore help the victims of auto accidents seek the damages they are due. However, the firm shares that it is important to seek a lawyer as soon as possible. In fact, after seeking medical help, the second action victims should take is look for legal representation.

Part of the reason for that is that it is vital to work on getting the compensation they deserve as soon as possible, but it must also be noted that there is a statute of limitations on when a claim can be filed. For injuries, it is two years, and for property damage, it is four years. No matter what kind of lawsuit a case may involve, the team of lawyers at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. are able to provide high quality legal services. Learn more about the law firm and their auto accident legal services at the following link: Auto Accident Lawyer Atlanta.
