PSS Help UK Expats Move To Canary Island

August 03, 2022

London, England - August 03, 2022 -
UK-based PSS International Removals is ready to help those making their move to the Canary Islands as well as other locations in Spain. The company has noticed in recent months that demand is on the rise for moves to Canary Island, and they wish to assure their customers that their internationally-recognised removal services are available to help them make their dream move. PSS has helped customers in the UK move overseas for over 40 years and their services are immensely valuable to anyone who wishes to experience a hassle-free removal to the Canary Islands. The demand for the Canary Islands is supported by insights released by the Ministry of Industry, Commerce and Tourism of Spain. A recent press release from this office stated that the Canary and the Balearic Islands welcomed the highest number of travellers in June, with figures approaching heights only seen prior to the pandemic. Additionally, the largest bloc of travellers who visited in June was from the UK- representing 1 in 4 of the region?s total travellers.

PSS International Removals allows customers receive a fast online quote for removals (taking no more than 60 seconds). However, this is not the only option at their disposal. They can also book a brief phone consultation with one of the company?s experienced moving experts or schedule a thorough home survey. If a customer so prefers they may opt for a video survey instead.

This represents the first step in a 4-part process that the company has streamlined over the years. Since most customers will be moving overseas for the first time, the company?s second step is to offer help and advice regarding every aspect of the move, including a full description of what an expat can expect as they proceed through customs. PSS International Removals understands that people will be protective of their belongings, so they invite customers to raise all concerns with the move manager at this point (though they can always return later for further enquiries).

In the third stage, a team from PSS International Removals will arrive on schedule to pack and prepare the customer?s belongings for shipping. All items will be treated with the utmost care to ensure that personal effects arrive in perfect condition.

Finally, these items will receive customs clearance upon arrival in the Canary Islands, whereupon they will be swiftly delivered to the designated address. PSS International Removals offers a door-to-door service, so customers will receive their items in their new home. Storage is available in both the UK and the Canary Islands if required.

As one Trustpilot reviewer says, "I would highly recommend PSS to anyone contemplating an international move. Everyone I've dealt with throughout the process has been friendly, responsive and very helpful. Thank you!" Another customer shares, ?The packers were polite and efficient. They were extremely organised and worked quickly to complete the pack-up. I was very happy with how they got on with the job and cleaned around themselves as they worked. Communication with the office was speedy and helpful at all times.?

Customers can receive a free, non-obligated quote today by visiting their website PSS International Removals https://www.pssremovals.com/removals-to-canary-islands. Those interested can also contact the company on the phone or through email.
