Beaverton, Oregon based Clyppi has announced the launch of their latest product, which is a nail art brushes set. The company states that every item in the brush set has been carefully selected by a nail art technician who picked the highest quality and most useful brushes and tools.

Keegan Allen, spokesperson for the company states, "Our nail brush set has finally been launched, and it's something that we've been working toward for quite some time."

Allen says that they took time carefully planning each and every brush and tool included, to ensure that the new set contains the precise tools needed to create a wide range of nail art.

He says that the set also contains a care and tips card so that consumers will know the proper way to clean the brushes and dotting pens to keep them in the best condition. Also included are tips on which brushes to use for specific nail design ideas.

"We planned the release of the product just in time for the holidays," says Allen. "Girls and women will love the colors of the brushes and the carrying pouch, and it's just in time for that perfect Christmas gift."

The Clyppi set comes with the company's satisfaction guarantee and no questions asked money back refund.

Included in the nail art set is a striper for creating lines, detailer for flowers and other intricate works, angular, small shader and large shader for creating backgrounds, and a fan for an airbrushed look. A dotting pen is also included as is a gel tip that the company states is perfect for creating french manicures.

"Our nail technician chose each of these tools specifically for the range of designs that they can help women to create," states Allen. He says that while there are a number of tools and brushes that are available for creating nail designs, what they have included in their new set are the tools used most by professional nail art designers.
