August 08, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Mitchell Nachtigal Law has announced its expansion of services to include Euless, TX. Local residents of Euless can now benefit from receiving experienced, quality, legal representation from one of the state's top real estate law firms.

Managing attorney Julia Mitchell said "We look forward to helping the residents of Euless with all of their real estate-related matters and are committed to protecting their rights and ensuring any legal issues or transactions are handled efficiently and smoothly." The expansion of the firm's services is good news for residents purchasing a new home, landlords and renters in need of conflict resolution, and land developers and business owners who are searching for a law firm that offers a wide range of real estate-related legal services.

Located in Tarrant County, Euless is home to over 60,000 Texans. The real estate market in Euless continues to flourish, with over fifty homes sold in June of 2022 alone. Residents interested in purchasing a residential or commercial property can rely on Mitchell Nachtigal Law to help them handle a wide array of real estate matters, including deed transfers, document preparation, boundary line agreements, and more. The firm also helps guide clients through landlord and tenant disputes, the seller and owner finance process, contract preparation and review, and more.

Mitchell Nachtigal Law is a full service real estate law firm that has over 30 years of combined experience. In addition to their expertise in handling complex real estate matters, the firm's other areas of practice include probate, business law, civil litigation, estate planning, and mediation.
