

A Fascinating Journey In Douro Valley Guided By Expert Local Tour Operator, Sommelier Tours

August 25, 2022

August 25, 2022 -

Vila Real, Portugal: Sommelier Tours is pleased to introduce a unique way to explore the Douro Valley - by private boat or a vintage chauffeured vehicle. The company's luxury private tours are a perfect way to discover the region's hidden gems, enjoy its stunning scenery, and taste some of the world-famous Port wines produced in the area.

To discover the best tours and activities in Douro Valley, visitors may take advantage of a private luxury tour service organised by Sommelier Tours, a renowned local tour operator. The personalised tours are led by João Koehler, a tourism graduated guide and certified Portuguese sommelier with more than a decade of wine and tourism experience and great love about the Douro Valley.

The Sommelier Tours is synonymous with luxury transfers and tours in Douro Valley. The company offers a great variety of tour packages, including a full-day wine-tasting experience in a chauffeur-driven, open-topped Mercedes car or a private yacht tour. Participants can personalise their tour to check out the places they want, take a traditional lunch at a premium restaurant with a panoramic view, and visit the most renowned Quintas in Douro Valley.

The tour guide at Sommelier Tours is the best person in the region to talk visitors through the local wine routes, the Douro Valley, and Portugal. Depending on the tourists' preferences, the Sommelier Tours may organise wine tasting sessions at more than one local winery. One of the most popular tour options is the ?Douro Wine Tour.? It includes a traditional lunch, flexible pickup and drop-off from Port and Douro Valley, and a visit to two Quintas. Guests can learn about the wine-making process and taste some of the region's finest wines.

For vintage lovers, Sommelier Tours also offers a ?Vintage Douro Tour? package for up to three persons. This tour package includes a private chauffeur-driven Cadillac El Dorado 1976 car, private wine-tasting sessions at exclusive boutique wineries, and a premium traditional lunch at a Quinta or restaurant.

The Douro Valley in Portugal is a unique tourist destination, and Sommelier Tours specialises in guiding people to the most magnificent spots and first-class wine routes in this beautiful, lush valley.
