

Insurance Claims Attorney Announces Free Consultation

November 24, 2015

November 24, 2015 -

Boca Raton, Florida based Arnesen Webb, P.A. has announced free consultations for clients. The insurance claims attorney firm represents injury victims and policyholders against insurance companies, focusing on those who have sustained property damage and have been wrongfully denied or delayed payment under insurance claims.

Jay Arnesen, founder of the firm, states, "Our goal is to help those who have been wronged by their insurance companies. By providing them with a free consultation, we hope to be able to take some of the worry off their shoulders."

The consultation consists of the firm determining whether or not a wrongful denial or delay has occurred. Arnesen states that this is the best way to help victims because it allows them to determine if the insurance company is at fault and if so, they can begin proceedings to help clients obtain the payment due to them.

"It's a horrible thing to be denied a claim that you know you have a right to receive," Arnesen says. "We've assisted many clients in the past and hope to help many more in the future. The system can be confusing and sometimes it takes knowledgeable and experienced insurance lawyers to finally get what you know you deserve."

After the free consultation, if a determination is made that the insurance company is at fault, the firm will begin processing the claim which includes a sworn proof of loss statement, representation at an examination under oath, and filing of a civil remedy notice. They assist victims through the legal issues that are often confusing and difficult to navigate, ensuring a positive outcome for clients.

By offering a free consultation, the firm hopes that victims will more seriously consider retaining an attorney. Arnesen states that often, clients are wary of reaching out for help because they feel it will be an expensive endeavor, which only adds to their worry.

The firm urges anyone who feels that they have been wronged by their insurance company to contact them for a free consultation. More about the firm, including a complete list of the legal services that they provide, can be seen on their official website at http://insurancelawyers.org/about-us/.
