August 23, 2022

Marietta, Georgia - August 23, 2022 -
Atlanta real estate investment company Mandich Property Group has announced that it has launched a brand new website that presents a clear overview of the company?s real estate homebuying services.

The website highlights the key benefits of working with Mandich Property Group which include the ability to forgo repairs or cleanups on an existing property and the company?s ability to close the property deal within a timeline that suits the homeowner. The website also provides visitors with a form that asks for their contact details such as name, email address, property address, city, and zip code, and the best phone number to reach them. The contact form also allows homeowners, who want to avail themselves of Mandich Property Group?s services, to send it a message to provide further details of the property and to ask their most pressing questions to the company?s real estate professionals.

Mandich Property Group has a three-step process for homeowners who want to sell their house fast for cash in Georgia. To initiate the process, property owners can reach out to the company by calling it or submitting their information online. The company?s representative will then ask them for details such as the location of the property, the number of bedrooms, square footage, its age, and other important factors that are instrumental to determining its value in the current property market.

Once the initial contact has been established and the company has the details that they need about the property, it will send over a representative for a site visit to verify the details provided by the customer. The company?s real estate experts will then answer any questions that the homeowner has about its services to give them the power to make the right decision for them. The homeowner will then receive a no-obligation offer from the company, which they can consider for some time and choose to either accept or reject.

Finally, once the homeowner agrees to the cash offer, the company will set into motion its tried and tested property buying procedure to ensure that it can close the deal as soon as possible and deposit the money in the homeowner?s bank account.

Ken Mandich talks about why Georgia property owners should consider selling their property to a company that buys houses for cash by saying, ?Your home is one of your most valuable assets. Owning property has often been considered one of the best ways to reliably build long-term equity and achieve the American Dream. However, the nature of property transactions makes it a fixed asset that is not of much use when you desperately need to tap into the equity that you have in your home. Some of the biggest expenses that you can face in your life such as making a down payment on a new property, investing in a business, paying for a wedding, paying for school, and many more, are often time-sensitive. You just can?t put a hold on these life events due to a lack of capital. Fast cash homebuyers, such as Mandich Property Group, cut through the time it takes to sell a property with a traditional realtor enabling you to quickly leverage the value of your most significant asset. You also don?t have to fix it or clean it up for staging as we buy the property as-is. Our offer also comes with no strings attached and gives you complete control over the property deal to sell your house fast.?
