August 23, 2022 -
SJ Winn Construction is offering GAF-certified roofing services to residential and commercial property owners in Torrington, CT. The roofing company recently received a 5-star review from one of its customers who praised its prompt response to their query, the speed with which it delivered the repair, and how effortlessly it worked with their insurance company to take care of all the paperwork.

The roofing company, which is headquartered in Winstead, CT, has received a lot of admiration from Torrington residents for its roofing services. Its recognition as one of Torrington?s premier roofing companies is evident in its near-perfect rating of 4.7 out of 5 from almost 50 reviews on its Google My Business page. Some of the common themes that are repeated in the reviews include ecstatic praise of the company?s work quality, its responsiveness, the value for money it provides, and the punctuality with which it delivers on all the promised deadlines.

The recent 5-star SJ Winn Construction customer review posted by Google user Jeremy Higgins says, ?I noticed that I had roof damage from a storm we had recently. I called SJ Winn construction to come to take a look and to see what it was going to cost me to have it repaired. The owner Scott was at my place that same day to look at it. So, I called my insurance company that same day to have them take a look at it as well. Before I knew it, SJ Winn Construction took care of all the details, and my new roof was installed 6 days later. They started on a Wednesday morning and it was done the very next day. Can?t thank them enough for the help with my insurance company and the fast work to get my roof fixed 100%. Thanks again!!?

A spokesperson for SJ Winn Construction put out a statement acknowledging Jeremy?s 5-star review by saying, ?We would like to thank Jeremy for taking the time to review our services. We are extremely grateful because the review will help Torrington residents understand why SJ Winn Construction is the top roofing company in their city. We are especially pleased that the reviewer took the time to recognize the promptness with which we responded to their case and commended us on our ability to work with insurance companies for an effortless claims process. The review is but one of many such acknowledgments of our dedication to Winsted and Torrington residents. We aim to not just make our customers? humble abodes safe for everyone within but to also increase their curb appeal to net them a good return on their property investment further down the road.?

SJ Winn Construction is a GAF-certified roofing company, a certification offered by the nation?s leading roofing and waterproofing manufacturer, GAF. The certification is regarded as a mark of great credibility for contractors in the roofing industry. Homeowners and commercial property owners are often recommended to find a GAF-certified roofer near them because it means that the contractors will only use the most premium roofing materials and use industry-standard installation techniques to ensure they last. GAF-certified companies also offer their customers enhanced warranties that are the strongest in the roofing industry and can help protect their customers? investment for 25, 30, or even 50 years down the road.

Apart from general roofing installation, maintenance, and repair, SJ Winn Construction also offers roof replacement, roof inspection, and storm damage restoration services. The company can remedy all types of roofing damage, from falling tree limbs that dent the roof?s structure, to incessant hail that dislodges shingles and exposes the underlayment. SJ Winn Construction can also work with a wide range of roofing materials such as asphalt shingles, tiles, synthetic slate shingles, and more to offer protection from every harsh weather element including snow, rain, and UV rays.
