

Atlanta Attorney Encourages Prompt Action Following An Auto Accident

August 18, 2022

Atlanta, Georgia - August 18, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Atlanta, GA based Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. is encouraging accident victims all over the state to reach out immediately if they are involved in an auto accident. Given the extent of damage and bodily harm an accident can cause, it is always in an injured party's best interests to seek experienced legal assistance in pursuing compensation, and this is precisely what is offered at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. See more here: Auto Accident Attorney Atlanta.

Upon receiving medical attention, an individual's first order of business should be to find an attorney who has a wealth of experience and a history of success in auto accident cases. While it is technically possible for an attorney with other specializations to provide legal assistance, any unfamiliarity with the Georgia court system or this practice area can have a negative effect on the outcome of a case.

This may be represented by the plaintiff being awarded less compensation than they are entitled to, which in turn can have life-changing consequences. However, inexperienced attorneys will also find themselves less able to reassure a client when concerns inevitably arise over the course of their case. Dealing with the aftermath of an accident is stressful enough, and every client deserves to have legal representation who can give them crucial insight on proceedings and help them understand what their expectations should be. This is also why it is deeply inadvisable for accident victims to attempt to represent themselves ? they often run a much higher risk of being held liable for the crash as well.

Fortunately, every client who chooses to work with the attorneys at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. can trust that their case is in the best hands possible. As one of the most recognizable names in Georgia's legal system, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. is ready and willing to place their considerable resources at the disposal of all their clients. In some cases, this may be as simple as directing a client to trusted medical providers (who can then supply the paperwork needed to build a case). In others, a client who has suffered grave injuries as a result of an accident will find that the firm is more than capable of accommodating their needs. In all situations, aggressive representation is guaranteed.

Notably, the firm says that no one has to take their word at face value. Instead, all are welcome to look up feedback and testimonials from previous clients to gain an idea of what their assistance is worth.

For instance, a review from Phyllis H. describes the personal approach the firm takes with every client. ?The entire team at Ken Nugent's office were amazing and worked very hard on my case,? the review says. ?Sabrina called me every week to check on my progress with all my doctors and was always on top of everything. Thank you, Sabrina! Kumi did an amazing job working with the insurance company to get me the maximum settlement amount and always kept me updated every step of the way. Kumi, you are the man! If I ever need another attorney, my first call will be to the Ken Nugent law firm.?

Elaine B. also points out why pursuing the full settlement with an attorney's help is so vital for people who have been in car accidents. ?Chris Adams was my attorney on my case. I had a car accident, which wasn't my fault. He got me the full liability limit. Lindsay was very helpful also. I had back surgery, so I'll have some pain the rest of my life, but the settlement money will help me so much. Thank you to everyone that worked on my case and got me through this. A friend recommended the Ken Nugent law firm, and I'm glad he did.?

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. can be reached around the clock at any of their nine Georgia offices. In addition to their headquarters in Atlanta, the firm serves the communities in and around Albany, Augusta, Athens, Columbus, Duluth, Macon, Savannah and Valdosta.
