Atlanta, Georgia - August 18, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Atlanta, GA based Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. would like to reach out to victims of accidents who may be looking for legal representation. An injury suffered in an auto accident often comes with a number of complex legal procedures surrounding compensation, especially with insurance companies fighting to ensure that they do not have to pay out a large amount in compensation and the injured party fighting to ensure that they get the compensation they need and deserve. With the help of a law firm with experience in this practice area, any victim can rest assured that their case is much more likely to conclude positively. "You need to look for a firm that will represent you to the fullest extent of the law," says Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. "You want a firm that will provide you with the experience and knowledge necessary to win your case. You are not required to hire a lawyer after a car accident that was not your fault. However, doing so can help you get compensation for which you are eligible, and you can also avoid liability for the crash. You will increase your chances of maximizing your compensation when you hire an Atlanta law firm to handle the negotiations with the insurance company. At the Atlanta Law Offices of Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C., we know that it can be incredibly stressful after a car wreck. Trying to move on with your life after suffering a personal injury can be difficult. It is important that you understand the steps you need to take when you have been involved in an accident. The first step you should would be to contact a personal injury law firm to handle your case.?

The injuries sustained from an auto accident can be life changing. They often prevent the victim from being able to perform adequately at their job or enjoy the activities they love the most, which greatly lowers their quality of life. An injury often leads to financial hardship and unnecessary stress, which is why it is so important to have an attorney to help with every aspect of a personal injury case.

Insurance companies are notorious for refusing to offer adequate settlements that encompass the full extent of the victim's injuries. An adjuster's job is to ensure that the insurance company pays as little as they can get away with, and unless forced to do so by a competent attorney they will fight to ensure that they pay out as little as possible. To the victim, this means that they end up having a harder time paying for medical bills and other expenses incurred as a result of the accident. Attorney Ken Nugent has helped countless victims of accidents get the compensation they deserve despite an insurance company's efforts to ensure the opposite, and his firm has received over a thousand reviews from happy clients on various platforms.

Ralph U. says about their experience with Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C., "Christopher Adams and Lindsay Gallof made this easy. I'm not sure the insurance company would have ever made me an offer if I hadn't made the (one) call to Ken Nugent. Sabrena, my case manager, called me regularly as promised to keep me informed. Plus, I felt good about working with local folks. A coworker used Ken years ago and had a positive experience, which is why I didn't consider calling any other law firm. Also, Ken's commercials seemed to be the most professional (my coworker was actually in one). I felt a huge weight lifted off of myself after I made the call. Thanks!?"

Tim P. shares in their review that it was their, "Second time using this awesome law firm. Was a first class experience from beginning to settlement. My representative, Conor Vaughn, was very informative and never failed to answer any questions I had, and he was always very professional in doing so. My attorney, Kathryn Reddy, was also very upfront and informative from every aspect! I highly recommend the Ken Nugent law firm if you want to get the most out of your unfortunate accident."
