

How To Choose The Right Eyelash Extensions, According to Lashes n' More

August 23, 2022

August 23, 2022 -
Hilton Head, SC - Lashes n' More showcases its expertise in choosing the right Eyelash Extensions, especially for its clientele on Hilton Head Island.

The beauty specialist says there are several factors to consider when looking for the right eyelash extensions. It is not one size fits all. The client's eye shape, eyelids, and the quality of their natural lashes can affect the choices. As experts, Lashes n' More offers helpful advice to its clientele.

The number one thing to consider is the diameter. Lashes n' More recommends a diameter comparable to the client's natural lashes. The second is the length. Those who prefer natural-looking lashes should pick a length closer to the original. On the other hand, those who want a fuller look can choose longer extensions.

Lash extensions also have different curl types. The smallest quantity is the J curl. The B curl is used in the inner eye, while the C curl creates the most visible curvature. There is also a D curl for those who prefer a dramatic effect and an L curve for hooded eyes. Lashes n' More assures they can apply any of these curls.

Those who want to make bolder statements can also choose colored lashes. There are several options, such as pink, purple, or blue. And lastly, the price. Clients can pick lashes depending on their set budget. There is definitely one that fits the client's style and budget.

Those who want to splurge a little for their look can also choose Luxury Eyelash Extensions in Hilton Head Island. Lashes n' More provides innovative application processes that produce high-quality lash styles that are comfortable, soft, and customizable for every occasion. "Our best lashes can help our clients express themselves in comfort and style, whether for everyday casual use or wedding/bridal lashes," they add.

According to the beauty expert in Hilton Head, getting eyelash extensions brings numerous benefits. Anyone can save money on beauty items by obtaining classic and volume lash extensions. They no longer need to rush to apply makeup in the morning. In addition, they save time by no longer curling their lashes and applying mascara each day.

Besides eyelash extensions, Lashes n' More also specializes in lash lifts and waxing. In addition, they also provide Brow Lamination, Lash and Brow Tint, and Lash Extension Removal. To know more about each service, interested parties may visit https://lashesanmore.com.
