And they are also committed to offering a secure, clean and ready-to-rent self storage unit, with their friendly staff ensuring that customers have a satisfactory self storage rental experience. And customers can manage their storage unit from the convenience of their home, 24 hours a day at any day of the week. Their website provides an easy and quick way for customers to manage their unit online. They can simply log in to their account and they have access to their unit on the website. More about the company can be gleaned from their website at <https://www.daphnetoyboxstorage.com/>.

These self storage units can be used for keeping precious belongings temporarily and the units can be rented on a monthly basis. Self storage is needed for a variety of reasons. For instance, the customer has recently moved to a new location but some of their belongings cannot fit into the new house, apartment, or business location. Some of the popular reasons for renting a self storage unit include: moving; downsizing or decluttering; growing family; business storage; separation; and personal loss.

A spokesperson for Daphne Toy Box Storage says, "There are many reasons why people prefer to rent self storage units from us. These include: 24-hour access; digital video surveillance; drive-up access; great customer service; online payment of bills; climate control; onsite security; and a variety of unit sizes."

There are a number of things to look for when choosing a self storage facility. These are: security, cleanliness, access and office hours, customer service, price, and location. Security is not just for the belongings in the storage unit but also for people who are accessing the facility. These include of security people and cameras located strategically around the facility to ensure that everything that is happening is captured on digital camera. And access to storage units is controlled by a gate and a personal PIN to prevent unauthorized access.

Cleanliness is also important for self storage units, especially with the global pandemic. All high-touch and high-traffic areas need to be thoroughly cleaned. They will also ensure that each storage unit is clean before a customer moves in his or her belongings. Pest and rodent prevention plans are also in place.

Access to the storage facility is available at any day of the week and any time of the day or night. And customers can rent and pay for self storage online if they prefer it. Their website has been assured to be easy to use and to provide a rich interactive experience. Renting a unit can be done in three simple steps: choosing the storage unit size; entering the billing information; and confirming the information.

Daphne Toy Box Storage also ensures that their price is affordable and competitive. They post their monthly rates on their website to allow customers to know the price right upfront.

Daphne Toy Box Storage was founded to allow customers to have a secure and advanced self storage for their belongings and can have access to their properties 365 days a year. They have a wide range of storage unit sizes and types to cater to various kinds of needs. All of their storage units are assured to be secure, clean, and affordable. Both climate-control and non-climate-control units are available.
