In one of their recent reviews, Joe D. gave them a five star rating and said, "Being a very online conscious person I was hesitant to use this online service. However I cannot recommend these guys enough! Sherry is a senior lawyer there and was assigned to assist myself and my fiancé through our first home purchase. She was patient and understanding and answered every question or query I had. Her knowledge and experience speaks volume to the work that she produces. I will definitely be using LEAD Conveyancing for any future property purchases. If anyone is having doubts about their service I can assure you that their pricing is completely transparent as is their service and abilities. I knew about all the costs associated and was well informed if there would have been additional costs associated with settling.?
