Trinh Thai of LEAD Conveyancing Melbourne says, ?We have been working hard to make buying and selling property as stress-free as it can be for our clients, and with our new location, we are excited to be able to expand reach and make more property owners? lives easier. Whether you are buying a property for the first time or selling a family home, you can rest assured that our team can help you throughout the whole process.?

LEAD Conveyancing Melbourne allows property owners to have an experienced conveyancing lawyer at their fingertips. The team comprises experts who are able to deftly lead prospective property owners through the maze of requirements in the process of buying or selling residential properties. LEAD Conveyancing also offers their clients the most practical and cost-effective outcome at a guaranteed fixed fee, and they are capable of meeting all conveyancing needs, whether the client requires a pre-signing contract review or prefers to proceed straight from conveyance to settlement.

LEAD Conveyancing Melbourne has also done a lot of work to digitize the whole process. There is no paper involved, very little post ? everything can be done over emails and phone calls. This means that no one has to take time off work for their conveyance. They can easily view and edit documents on the go using e-signing technology. Further, there is no need for face-to-face physical meetings since they can all be done over online video conferencing.

The company offers a lot of services, including but not limited to assisting with the purchase of existing or off-the-plan residential property (including reviewing the Contract of the proposed purchase), and selling existing residential property (including drafting the client?s Contract and Section 32 also known as a Vendor?s Statement). In addition, LEAD Conveyancing also deals with property transfers between related parties, stand-alone contract reviews, stand-alone contract drafting and more. The services provided by LEAD Conveyancing Melbourne have earned the company great praise from their clients across all their locations. Tamara Vincent-Smith says in their review, ?Thank you, Sherry, for all your amazing work in getting my matter settled. It was a difficult case that you handled with ease and professionalism. My experience from start to finish with LEAD Conveyancing Melbourne has been a very positive one, and I would happily recommend them to friends and family. I am grateful for your honesty, kindness and prompt communication. Thank you.?

In another review, Andrew W. says, ?LEADConveyancing Melbourne was great to work with. Thoroughly professional; they provided excellent advice and options as we went through the sales process. When we encountered delays that had contractual implications, Sherry (our contact) was able to advise us of the different approaches and potential outcomes which could arise from various scenarios. The result was that all issues were addressed, and the sale was completed, albeit a week late (which was not an issue for us). I was so impressed that we have appointed Lead Conveyancing to assist us in selling another property.?
