Founder of the Freedom Fun USA franchise, now boasting 10 locations across the country, Tim Masters built his company with a vision for streamlined and straightforward party rental booking options. The overall mission is to provide unforgettable experiences in a stress-free and convenient manner so that hosts can enjoy events just as much as their guests. The company strives to empower its clientele to throw memorable events that provide endless hours of entertainment with the support of its team of knowledgeable and friendly coaches, as well as its expansive inventory of games, inflatables, and rentals.

The company delivers projector rentals and inflatable movie screens in North Austin to help serve a range of events including film festivals, sports screenings, birthday parties, corporate events or presentations, music festivals, neighborhood block parties, school celebrations, family movie nights, and more. Freedom Fun USA North Austin offers five versatile screen options to suit the needs of 25 to 2,000 attendees. Each of the packages includes HD projectors, speakers, Bluray players, and any other essentials to help the event run smoothly. Professional movie technicians are available to help host your event and address any technical issues for an additional fee. The movie screens are compatible with laptops and other technology to connect to streaming networks, live events, presentations, and other forms of media.

The smallest screen rental is the 16' non-inflatable projector screen that can be used indoors or outdoors. This pop-up option can comfortably accommodate up to 25 guests and is regularly booked for family movie nights, video game parties, or sports-watching parties. The base price for this equipment is $249 if the rental is picked up from the company's facilities, $349 if delivered to the customer's location, and $349 if one of the company's movie techs is on-site to help host the event.

The 18' backyard screen comfortably accommodates up to 50 guests and is often retained for a range of private events. The base price for this equipment is $299 if the rental is picked up from the company's facilities, $399 if delivered to the customer's location, and $399 if one of the company's movie techs is on-site to help host the event.

The 25' gold screen is recommended for up to 150 guests and is a popular choice for larger outdoor events including community parties, church functions, and school movie nights. The base price for this equipment is $399 if the rental is picked up from the company's facilities, $499 if delivered to the customer's location, and $499 if one of the company's movie techs is on-site to help host the event.

The 32' blockbuster screen is recommended for up to 300 guests and is often rented for small drive-in movie nights, festivals, and school functions. This larger rental measures 20' wide by 12' high. The base price for a movie technician to be available on-site to help host the event is $799. Interested parties are encouraged to contact the company directly to learn more about pick-up or delivery pricing.

The skyline screen, the largest screen rental offered by the company, measures 29' wide by 17' high and is recommended for up to 2,000 guests. This option is often rented for community festivals, film festival screenings, and other large functions. The base price for a movie technician to be available on-site to help host the event is $1,599. Interested parties are encouraged to contact the company directly to learn more about pick-up or delivery pricing.

One customer, the local Duchman Family Winery Events staff, recommended the company because of how professional the team was during their movie screen rental and said, "They're great! We hosted a movie night on the lawn here at Duchman Family Winery. We rented the 18' inflatable screen and projector. Sammy was our setup guy and stayed to make sure all went well, and it did. They were communicative, prompt, and professional. We will definitely be using them again! Additional positive feedback can be found posted on the company's official Google business page.
