While I love living in a historic neighborhood, keeping these older roofs water tight is always an issue. I had McHenry Roofing come out to look at my Hampden roof a few months ago and they did a great job. The estimator was very knowledgeable and helped me understand what needed to be done. They offered me a great price on a roof coating and their team of roofers really knew what they were doing. They gave me pictures of the completed roof coating and roof repairs and everything looked great. They are my new go-to Baltimore roofing company.?"
