Ron's Amazing Products, a business in Catonsville, Maryland, has announced that their HD Spy Pen, which has recently also been made available for direct purchase from the company's website, has received its 100th positive review. The company is happy to see some of these testimonials are being left on their own website. They want to encourage more customers to do the same, as this will enable them to improve their service and products. The current testimonials are available on <http://www.ronsamazingproducts.com/testimonials/>.

"It is a double celebration for us", says Ronald Hoff, founder of Ron's Amazing Products. "Not only have we received over 100 reviews on our regular selling platform, the reviews are now also coming in on our own website. It was following a customer testimonial that we started to offer the spy pen through our site, and it is great to see that this is appreciated."

Of particular interest was one review that explained how the HD spy pen actually helped the customer resolve a significant legal issue. The company has always been keen to ensure people understand that the Spy HD Pen is not simply a fun gadget, but actually a professional tool that can be used in a variety of different situations. To hear that it is being used as such has been very welcome news for them.

"The camera's resolution is good," says Sarah. "I took a video while I was out on the street and also recorded a meeting at work. It helped me a lot in coping with my work by having an audio recording which I used to look for details I have missed. If you are looking for a device that can help you at work, then this pen camera is the product for you."

The product is also available through the Amazon selling portal on <http://www.amazon.com/gp/product/B00G2TEKM2>. It is also here that the 100th review was left. Customers have regularly mentioned that the product works very well and is incredibly convenient as it works as a pen as well as a camera. It is perfect for those who like to be a secret spy, as well as those who need it for professional purposes.
