

Work Injury Lawyer Advocates For Orange Employees

October 12, 2022

Orange, California - October 12, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

CA based Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer Orange County is ready to advocate on behalf of those who have suffered injuries at their place of work. The firm acknowledges that many may find it reasonable to blame themselves for the incident in question, but the truth is that their employer, and perhaps other parties, may instead bear responsibility. It is vital for an injured employee to seek legal representation so that they can pursue the financial compensation they likely deserve. See more here: Personal Injury Lawyer Near Me Orange.

Alexander D. Napolin, the firm's lead attorney, clarifies that California law mandates that all businesses carry an insurance plan to cover employees in the event they experience a work-related injury or illness. While employees cannot directly file a lawsuit against their employer due to negligence or other issues pertaining to the incident, this means that they will generally receive financial assistance from their employer until the insurer decides whether or not they accept liability for the injury. To receive this assistance, the worker need only report their injury to their employer at once and request a workers' compensation claim form.

However, issues may arise when the worker's claim is disputed. This is where a worker's compensation lawyer can provide valuable assistance, gathering the evidence they need to make their case and ensure all due compensation is received. Typically, the insurance company will attempt to limit how much they have to pay out, and Napolin says workers? should be especially wary of this in all circumstances as insurers are incentivised to act against the injured parties? best interests ? paying out the full amount would cut into their profits.

Some of the types of injuries that are covered include slip and fall injuries, repetitive stress injuries, toxic exposure and so on. Napolin is committed to advocating aggressively on his community?s behalf, and his firm has a policy of refusing payment unless a case is won. As such, a client would have nothing to lose by contacting Napolin and his team today for a consultation.

Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer Orange County also tackles a wide variety of personal injury cases in addition to workers? compensation. For instance, the firm sees a lot of clients who have been in car accidents that occurred through no fault of their own. As J. Naranja says, ?I rate Napolin 5-Stars for service and professionalism. The staff was always responsive and took care of my questions. Napolin was always available when decisions needed to be made about my case. Plus, the outcome is more than I even expected since I healed fully from the car accident whiplash. Suggest Napolin for a car accident lawyer in Orange County.? M. Singh similarly says about their experience, ?Very helpful. The consultation was free. Knowledgeable, professional accident attorneys. Very nice people. Integrity is very important to me. If you need a solid law firm on your side, this is the place. Alex, with Diana and Roxana, gave me excellent service. They got me a max payout. They referred me to the best Chiropractor in Orange County, Dr. Raymond Salvatore. I just wanted to thank everyone that helped me.?

Napolin works with clients who have been involved with all kinds of auto accidents. While car accidents are among the most common, the firm also deals with cases involving trucks, motorcycles and more. In fact, these types of cases tend to involve far more devastating consequences given the nature of the vehicles involved, and the firm urges victims (or their families) to schedule a consultation if they have been in an accident with a truck or motorcycle.
