

Yourworldsavings.com Launches It's New Online Shopping Portal

December 07, 2015

December 07, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Anders Eriksen, has announced the launch of their new online shopping portal, complete with discounted products sold worldwide. The company states that they will be including additional weekly offers to their already strongly discounted prices.

"It's a site that has the customer in mind," states the spokesperson for Yourworldsavings.com, Anders Eriksen.

Eriksen states that the company has worked to get the online portal up and running in time for the holiday shopping season. He says that consumers like to save money, but still need to purchase specific items during the Christmas season, which is what their new shopping site is all about.

"We want to help people to get the items that they want and/or need, but not have to break the bank to purchase them," he states. The company has also added a Facebook fan page, where consumers can go to find out about current and future specials. The page can be seen at <https://www.facebook.com/Yourworldlyavings/>.

The shopping portal brings together a number of businesses based all over the world that sell commonly purchased consumer items. Yourworldsavings.com offers information about these items, including where to buy, and provides discounts and coupons for their purchase, helping consumers to save MORE money. The company is also providing information about product sales and their new shopping portal on their Twitter page at <https://twitter.com/anderseriksen10>.

Eriksen states that it will give consumers the opportunity to purchase items that they would buy anyway, but at a much lower cost than retail, and that many consumers spend hours scouring the web looking from online store to online store to find a specific item. He points out that with all of these items in the same place, on the same shopping portal, consumers are also going to be saving time because they can simply shop at one portal for all of the items that they need.
