There are many situations where a homeowner would want to sell their property as quickly as possible. These include: when they are going through a foreclosure; when they own an unwanted property; when they are frustrated with the difficulties of managing tenants; when they own a vacant property; when they have inherited an unwanted property; when they have to relocate quickly because of employment or some other reason; when they want to avoid listing the house with an agent and don?t want to pay real estate agent commissions; when they are going through a divorce; and when they own a dilapidated house that requires a lot of repair but don?t want to fix it up.

Selling a house to Jubilee Properties NW only requires three simple steps. First, the homeowner contacts them on the phone, after which, they will research the specific details of the home and then begin crafting a fair offer. In the second step, they will present the homeowner with the highest possible cash offer the first time, every time, with the homeowner without any obligation to accept the offer. In addition, no fees will be collected. And in the fhird and final step, the home sellers receives the cash without having to wait six to 12 months, which is the typical length of time that a homeowner will need to wait when going through the conventional route of listing the property with a real estate agent.

At Jubilee Properties, their Cash Offer Program can fill the gaps that listing with a real estate agent and the technology giants don?t. They want to emphasize that they are not real estate agents and are simply direct cash home buyers. As such, they buy several houses every month in the Vancouver area. And unlike other home buyers, they are locally based and therefore are very familiar with Pacific Northwest area, specially with the Vancouver region. Their offers are guaranteed, which means that the amount they offer will really be the price that they will pay.

As co-owners of the company, they bring with them years of experience and expertise in buying, restoring, and selling houses in the State of Washington.
