November 17, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

To assist the travelers in booking bus tickets for their intercity or inter-country bus travels all across Zambia, Bus Ticket Zambia ? a bus ticket booking specialist website ? has announced their 24/7 bus ticket booking services to provide assured seats and best deals. The Dotcom Zambian company has improved their website to help assist bus ticket booking services for travelers who wish to make an intercity or inter-country bus travel. The tickets can be booked anytime on any day of the year.

Announcing the services, Francesca Phiri-Banda, the company's PR Manager, said that their bus ticket booking services are backed with high-quality customer assistance to provide the best ticket booking and travel experience to their clients. She said that the company wishes to make ticket booking and bus travel a comfortable and hassle-free experience for people. Thus they have made improvements to their services and introduced them for people to benefit from it as much as they can.

Explaining the improved services, Francesca said that their online ticket booking services can be used from both a desktop system or from a mobile. They have made the website that can be accessed from any device and from anywhere to help customers book an assured seat and ticket for the bus of their choice. To make the ticket booking experience better, they have made payment much easier by providing different platforms like Visa, Zamtel, Zoon, Postdonet, and more for making payments.

She further added that Bus Ticket Zambia wants travelers to get the best out of all deals, and with their network of a large number of bus service providers, they want to provide the widest range of best deals and offers possible for their customers.

Francesca further said that the motto of their company is to provide comfortable, reliable and safe intercity bus ticket booking. Working to provide the better than the best experience to the travelers using their services, she said that their improved services are a positive step towards their efforts.
