The firm understands the legal needs of individuals and families facing bankruptcy and works to ensure that these needs are met. As a highly rated Maryland bankruptcy attorney office, ZSTS provides clients with the very best legal representation as they go through the process associated with bankruptcy. Bankruptcy is often a sign of very serious financial and legal difficulties, and having the right legal representation can make a world of difference in terms of how the process of declaring bankruptcy goes.

?If you are struggling financially and looking to speak with a Glen Burnie bankruptcy lawyer, you?ve come to the perfect place,? the firm says. ?Mounting debts, imminent foreclosure and harassing phone calls from creditors are a nightmare. You need an experienced and knowledgeable attorney in your corner. The bankruptcy lawyers at ZSTS law group are always happy to discuss your financial situation to determine the best defense strategy moving forward.?

The firm offers compassionate assistance with debt relief in Maryland. Many people who find themselves facing financial difficulties feel embarrassed to ask for help ? even if it is sorely needed. However, should anyone find themselves facing bankruptcy in Maryland, it is important for them to avoid assigning blame where it might not be necessary to do so. Many tend to blame themselves despite the fact that bankruptcy is something that happens to even the most financially astute individuals. It is important, instead, to talk to an experienced bankruptcy lawyer in Maryland who understands bankruptcy, the financial troubles that lead up to it and how best to go about handling it. Many of the causes of bankruptcy are a result of factors that may be beyond the individual?s control, such as medical problems, divorce, predatory lending and job loss.

ZSTS Law Group offers exactly the kind of assistance a person facing bankruptcy might need to get their financial troubles under control ? whether they have recently discovered that their home is in foreclosure, their earnings will be withheld and redirected towards paying a creditor or any similar situation. In order to help them fully understand their predicament, the bankruptcy specialists at ZSTS work directly with clients, leading them through all the procedures necessary to file for Maryland Chapter 7 bankruptcy or Chapter 13 bankruptcy (depending on the specifics of their case).

Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 bankruptcy are meant to meet the needs of individuals in different situations. The Maryland legal office says, ?You may qualify for Chapter 7 bankruptcy if your income is low enough. When your petition is accepted, you do not need to pay back most of your debts. In many cases, you can keep your home and your car. I review your finances in detail to determine whether you qualify for Chapter 7 and to decide if it is the best choice for you. If you are facing foreclosure, you might qualify to use Chapter 13 bankruptcy to protect your home. Chapter 13 bankruptcy offers you relief through debt reorganization. We create a structured payment plan that allows you to pay your debts off over a period of three to five years. I help you review your finances to determine whether Chapter 13 is a good option for you.?

The firm has received a number of excellent reviews from pleased clients. Molly C. says in a glowing testimonial, ?Marla and team were very patient and communicative with me throughout a long and difficult case. Marla paid meticulous attention to details and helped bring the case to an optimal outcome. She is completely professional and genuinely interested in trying to help her clients. I highly recommend her to anyone who has a case in her area of expertise!?
