Virginia Beach, Virginia - March 03, 2023 -
Proactive Healthcare Recruiters, a Virginia Beach-based healthcare recruiting agency, has posted a job opportunity for a Speech Therapist (SLP) at a hospital in Council Grove, Kansas. Readers can view other job openings from the recruiter by heading over to: https://careers.proactivehealthcarerecruiters.com/.

The employment opportunity in Council Grove, that Proactive Healthcare Recruiters is seeking applicants for, is a full-time position that starts at $70,000 and offers a host of other benefits such as medical, dental, vision, retirement, and PTO, a generous CEU allowance, scrub allowance, licensing renewals, association dues, and many other voluntary benefits. The selected candidate will also receive a signing-on bonus, relocation expenses, and student loan assistance.

Candidates applying for the position are required to have a Kansas SLP license or be eligible for licensing and should have a Certificate of Clinical Competence in Speech & Language Pathology. Candidates will also be evaluated on their soft skills such as stamina, leadership, positivity, compassion, interpersonal communication skills, attention to detail, creative problem-solving, resourcefulness, and time management. The position treats both adults and children and offers flexibility in scheduling.

A spokesperson for Proactive Healthcare Recruiters talks about what qualified job seekers can expect from the Speech Therapist position in Council Grove by saying, ?This job opportunity comes with a high degree of job satisfaction. As a licensed Speech Language Pathologist, you will help patients recover from life-changing injuries. Being a part of clients? lives and helping them through their difficult times is indeed a challenge. However, as they make progress and conquer their temporary disabilities, you will feel a sense of accomplishment that very few other careers offer. The gratitude that your clients will express to you for your time and expertise will keep you ready and willing to help others like them. If you are compassionate, optimistic, and dedicated to delivering quality care in an environment that values your expertise, apply today.?

The selected candidate will be entrusted with a range of duties including providing Speech & Language Pathology consultation and services to the hospital?s patients to improve their quality of life, educating patients and caregivers of safe rehabilitation practices so they can continue the progress made in therapy long after leaving the clinic, using the latest WebPT EMR software to complete weekly documentation ensuring that all state and federal guidelines are met, and working with a team of other highly qualified professionals who are excited about helping people.

Proactive Healthcare Recruiters? spokesperson talks about the city where the job listing is posted by saying, ?Council Grove is a quaint little prairie town in Morris County that was named in the Smithsonian Magazine?s 2021 list of the best small towns in the country to visit. It has immense cultural significance that stems from its history as being one of the stops on the Santa Fe Trail. Today, the town has 15 sites listed on the federal government?s National Register of Historic Places. The successful applicant will surely enjoy serving the town?s population of little more than 2300 residents, who take pride in its rich history. The median property value in Council Grove as of 2020 is just over $100,000 and the median household income is shy of $50,000 per year. The healthcare & social assistance industry employs a quarter of the city's working population. The town has been rated at an A- for its cost of living, B+ for housing, and B for families by Niche.com. The thriving community has an excellent school system, affordable housing, and picturesque lakes for those who like to spend time in nature. Apply today and start your life?s next exciting journey among good people in one of America?s most charming and welcoming cities.?
